Why choose a hub?

✓ Productivity

- Interoperable IT and AV
- Flexible work settings recognised as supporting productivity
- Logical adjacencies between teams and departments

✓ Collaboration

- Flexible worksettings for
- Smarter working
- Virtual workspaces facilitate remote collaboration
- On-site meeting and conference spaces

✓ Community

- Supports cross-departmental working
- Spaces for classes, activities and groups
- Links with local education and community organisations

✓ Engagement

- Choose when, where and how you work
- Access a range of career and development opportunities
- Easy access to public transport infrastructure

✓ Wellbeing

- Class leading inclusive design
- Accessible to a wide range of people of all abilities
- Reflection, recovery and wellbeing spaces as standard

✓ Future-Proof

- Easy to reconfigure to enable social distancing
- Linked transitional spaces to enable early recruitment

✓ Net zero

We are leading the way across the government office estate to achieve net zero in the construction and operation of Hubs.

✓ Levelling-up

We ensure hubs are located close to major public transport infrastructure to enable people to travel to work conveniently and sustainably.

✓ Resilience

A network of hubs provides resilience for all departments.

“We have found that the variety of space available enabled different types of collaboration as well as for focused independent work. We’re now much more aware of how good building design can positively impact the way we work.”

- DEFRA

(Department for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs)

“There are more chairs in meeting rooms and collaborative workspaces than there are behind desks. We’ve flooded the space with audio visual equipment and WIFI coverage and have even installed writable walls. We’ve actually got less space than before but we don’t think anyone has really noticed (or cares) because we’re using that space so much more creatively.”

- Sarah Cox - Ofgem (Office of Gas and Electricity Markets)

The Government Hub Network

Government hubs are located in all four nations of the United Kingdom, providing a network of modern, digitally enabled, shared workspaces for the UK Civil Service.

8 hubs are already open with another 8 announced. The network will continue to grow with further announcements as additional hub locations are confirmed.
