^[1] Staff should not normally accept gifts. Heads of Unit, or equivalent, have delegated authority to decide on whether it would be right and proper to accept offers of gifts. If a member of staff or the department is in any doubt about the propriety of the purchase or the acceptance of a gift, the offer must be refused

^[2] Hospitality does not normally include attendance at functions hosted by HM Government; 'diplomatic' functions in the UK or abroad, hosted by overseas governments; minor refreshments at meetings, receptions, conferences, and seminars; and offers of hospitality which were declined.
