Notes on completing the form

Form A65 is for use if you are a party in proceedings under the Adoption and Children Act 2002 and you want the court to keep any of the following details confidential:

- your private address and telephone number;
- the address of the child;
- the name of the person with whom the child lives (Note: this does not apply to you if you are making an application and the child lives with you. In those circumstances your name will remain confidential only if you proposing to adopt the child and you are entitled to be assigned a serial number and a number has been assigned to you);
- if you are making an application under section 28(2) for permission to change the child's surname, the new surname proposed for the child.

If you are making the application to the court, do not enter the information you wish to be kept confidential on the application form. Instead, give the information on Form A65 and attach it to your application. If you are a respondent in the court proceedings, when you receive notice of the hearing you should complete the form and send it to the court, together with your acknowledgment of the notice. Information entered on Form A65 will not be revealed to any person, unless it is by order of the Court.

Part 1 (the full name(s) of the applicant(s)/respondent(s) and the name of the child) must be completed in all cases.
