

Standard application for a Gender Recognition Certificate

This form should be used by applicants for a Gender Recognition Certificate who are not applying using either the alternative application route/track or the overseas process.

Applicants applying under this process must demonstrate that they have lived full time in their acquired gender for at least two years.

Before you start, please read the document 'The General Guide for All Users' (The General Guide), which explains the gender recognition process. Please note that the Marriage (Same Sex Couples) Act 2013, the Marriage and Civil Partnership (Scotland) Act 2014, the Civil Partnership (Opposite-sex Couples) Regulations 2019 and The Marriage (Same-sex Couples) and Civil Partnership (Opposite-sex Couples) (Northern Ireland) Regulations 2019 introduced changes into the gender recognition process, particularly for those who are married or in a civil partnership.

The General Guide explains the consequences of applying for a Gender Recognition Certificate and the options open to you, particularly if you are married or in a civil partnership

The Guidance Notes (see 'Guidance on Completing the Standard Application Form for a Gender Recognition Certificate') should answer most of the questions you may have. We recommend that you read the notes before completing each section of the form. If you do find it difficult to complete on your own, you could ask a friend or someone from a support organisation to help you, or you can telephone the Gender Recognition Panel (GRP) administrative team on +44 (0) 2039368963.

You must complete sections 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 10, 11, 12 and EITHER section 3 OR section 4, which ever applies to you and section 8 or 9 if you are married or in a civil partnership.

Please use black ink when completing this form.

The information in this publication is available in alternative formats on request. Please contact the GRP administrative team on +44 (0) 2039368963 or grpenquiries@justice.gov.uk

6B.3 Daytime contact number

7. Details of Gender Recognition Statutory Declaration

You are required to provide a statutory declaration making several statements about your circumstances and your application. This is to ensure that you meet the criteria for the grant of a Gender Recognition Certificate. The type of statutory declaration you will complete will depend on whether you are currently single, married or in a civil partnership. There are separate statutory declaration forms with guidance to help you understand what is needed.

PLEASE NOTE: This is not the same as your “change of name” statutory declaration.

Once you have filled in your statutory declaration it is necessary to have your signature to the statutory declaration witnessed by a person authorised to administer oaths. Please see the accompanying Guidance Notes for a list of those authorised to administer oaths. Please provide the information about the witness to the statutory declaration in the boxes 7.1 - 7.5 below.

7.1 Date of statutory declaration / /

7.2 Name of the authorised person who is the witness to the statutory declaration

7.3 Qualification which enables the authorised person to administer the statutory declaration

7.4 Address of the authorised person

7.5 Daytime contact telephone number of the authorised person

This form is not the statutory declaration. Please include the original statutory declaration with your application.

Applicant's further information

- 7.6 Are you currently married? Yes No
- 7.7 Are you currently in a civil partnership? Yes No
- 7.8 If you have answered Yes, to either question 7.6 or 7.7
- I am applying for an interim Gender Recognition Certificate
 - I am applying for a full Gender Recognition Certificate

8. Marriage (please complete this section if you are currently married).

You may apply to the Gender Recognition Panel for a GRC while remaining married if:

- You were married under the law of England, Wales or Northern Ireland (your marriage is called a 'protected' marriage);
- Your marriage was solemnised in Scotland (your marriage is called a 'Scottish protected marriage');
- You were married under the law of a country or territory outside of the UK (your marriage is called a 'protected' marriage).

Your spouse will need to agree to the marriage continuing after your gender recognition by completing a statutory declaration.

8.1 Is your marriage a protected marriage or a Scottish protected marriage? Yes No

8.2. If your marriage is a protected marriage or a Scottish protected marriage do you and your spouse intend to remain married following your gender recognition Yes No

Please provide your original marriage certificate or a certified copy.

8.3 Has your spouse made a statutory declaration of consent? Yes No

8.4 If you answered Yes to 8.3, is it enclosed with this application? Yes No

Once section 8 is completed, please go to section 10.

12. Declarations

If your birth was registered in the UK, to process your application, the Gender Recognition Panel needs to pass your details to the relevant Registrar General. Similarly if your marriage or civil partnership was registered in England and Wales or Scotland and you are applying for gender recognition while remaining married or in a civil partnership, then the Panel will need to pass your details onto the appropriate Registrar General.

If you consent below, the Registrar General will contact you (if your application is successful) to inform you about options for your new birth certificate (and where appropriate a new marriage or civil partnership certificate).

I consent to the Registrar General contacting me in relation to the issue of a new birth/marriage/civil partnership certificate, as appropriate.

I certify that all the information given in this application is correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that to make a false application is an offence.
