Part Two: Design refinement consultation

In July 2017, the Government confirmed the route for the next phase of HS2: Crewe to Manchester and West Midlands to Leeds (known as Phase 2b). Last year we consulted on our working draft Environmental Statement which set out a more detailed scheme.

We received almost 40,000 responses to that consultation. Since then we have been analysing the feedback received and continuing to work on developing the design for Phase 2b before we submit our hybrid Bill to Parliament.

Between 6 June and 6 September 2019 the Government is carrying out a design refinement consultation on 11 proposed changes to the scheme that we published last year. These are substantial changes to the design or new infrastructure required for the construction and operation of the new railway.

The Secretary of State will make a decision on whether to include the 11 proposed changes in the hybrid Bill design following consideration of the feedback received to this consultation.

Using this response form

There are 11 separate changes that we are consulting on. The map opposite identifies where these changes are. The consultation document published to support this consultation contains descriptions of each of the proposed changes.

When responding to this consultation, please identify the question number(s) your response relates to. You are free to respond to as many of the questions as you wish, however please indicate which parts of your response relate to which question.
