

Consultant 135

3 October 2012

BUPA and Aviva have unilaterally decided to significantly reduce the fees for grommets (D1510) and fiberoptic endoscopies under local anaesthetics (E3680+AC100) and in some instances, simply refused to pay but have told the patients not to pay the shortfalls. This is rather difficult to comprehend and I believe that their actions may be illegal. Please investigate.