

COMPETITION AND MARKETS AUTHORITY

ACQUISITION BY COOPERVISION (UK) HOLDINGS LIMITED OF SAUFLON PHARMACEUTICALS LIMITED

Initial Enforcement Order made by the Competition and Markets Authority pursuant to section 72(2) of the Enterprise Act 2002 (the Act)

Whereas:

- (a) the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA) has reasonable grounds for suspecting that it is or may be the case that Coopervision (UK) Holdings Limited (Coopervision UK) and Sauflon Pharmaceuticals Limited (Sauflon) have ceased to be distinct
- (b) the CMA is considering, pursuant to section 22 of the Act, whether it is or may be the case that a relevant merger situation has been created and whether the creation of that situation has resulted or may be expected to result in a substantial lessening of competition in any market or markets in the United Kingdom (UK)
- (c) the CMA wishes to ensure that no action is taken pending final determination of any reference under section 22 of the Act which might prejudice that reference or impede the taking of any action by the CMA under Part 3 of the Act which might be justified by the CMA's decisions on the reference, and
- (d) the circumstances set out in section 72(6) of the Act do not apply and the reference has not been finally determined in accordance with section 79(1) of the Act.

Now for the purposes of preventing pre-emptive action in accordance with section 72(2) of the Act the CMA makes the following order addressed to Coopervision UK and The Cooper Companies, Inc. (Cooper) (Order).

Title, commencement, application and scope

1. This Order commences on the commencement date: 19 September 2014.
2. This Order applies to Cooper and Coopervision UK.
3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Order, no act or omission shall constitute a breach of this Order, and nothing in this Order shall oblige Cooper or Coopervision UK to reverse any act or omission, in each case to the extent that it occurred or was completed prior to the commencement date.

Management of the Cooper Business and Sauflon Business until determination of proceedings

4. Except with the prior written consent of the CMA, Cooper and Coopervision UK shall not, during the specified period, take any action which might prejudice a reference of the transaction under section 22 of the Act or impede the taking of any action under the Act by the CMA which may be justified by the CMA's decisions on such a reference, including any action which might:
 - (a) lead to the integration of the Sauflon Business with the Cooper Business
 - (b) transfer the ownership or control of the Cooper Business or the Sauflon Business or any of its subsidiaries, or
 - (c) otherwise impair the ability of the Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business to compete independently in any of the markets affected by the transaction.
5. Further and without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 4 and subject to paragraph 3, Cooper and Coopervision UK shall at all times during the specified period procure that, except with the prior written consent of the CMA:
 - (a) the Sauflon Business is carried on separately from the Cooper Business and Sauflon's separate sales or brand identity is maintained
 - (b) the Sauflon Business and the Cooper Business are maintained as a going concern and sufficient resources are made available for the development of the Sauflon Business and the Cooper Business, on the basis of their respective pre-merger business plans

- (c) except in the ordinary course of business, no substantive changes are made to the organisational structure of, or the management responsibilities within, the Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business
- (d) the nature, description, range and quality of goods and/or services supplied in the UK by each of the two businesses are maintained and preserved
- (e) except in the ordinary course of business for the separate operation of the two businesses:
 - (i) all of the assets of the Sauflon Business and the Cooper Business are maintained and preserved, including facilities and goodwill
 - (ii) none of the assets of the Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business are disposed of, and
 - (iii) no interest in the assets of the Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business is created or disposed of
- (f) there is no integration of the information technology of the Sauflon Business or Cooper Business, and the software and hardware platforms of the Sauflon Business shall remain essentially unchanged, except for routine changes and maintenance
- (g) the customer and supplier lists of the two businesses shall be operated and updated separately and any negotiations with any existing or potential customers and suppliers in relation to the Sauflon Business will be carried out by the Sauflon Business alone and for the avoidance of doubt Cooper will not negotiate on behalf of the Sauflon Business (and vice versa) or enter into any joint agreements with the Sauflon Business (and vice versa)
- (h) all existing contracts of the Sauflon Business and the Cooper Business continue to be serviced by the business to which they were awarded
- (i) no changes are made to key staff of the Sauflon Business or Cooper Business
- (j) no key staff are transferred between the Sauflon Business and the Cooper Business

- (k) all reasonable steps are taken to encourage all key staff to remain with the Sauflon Business and the Cooper Business, and
- (l) no business secrets, know-how, commercially-sensitive information, intellectual property or any other information of a confidential or proprietary nature relating to either of the two businesses shall pass, directly or indirectly, from Sauflon (or any of its employees, directors, agents or affiliates) to Cooper (or any of its employees, directors, agents or affiliates), or vice versa, except where strictly necessary in the ordinary course of business (for example, where required for compliance with external regulatory and/or accounting obligations) and on the basis that, should the merger be prohibited, any records or copies (electronic or otherwise) of such information that have passed, wherever they may be held, will be returned to the business to which they relate and any copies destroyed.

Compliance

- 6. Cooper and Coopervision UK shall procure that each of their subsidiaries complies with this Order as if the Order had been issued to each of them.
- 7. Cooper and Coopervision UK shall provide to the CMA such information or statement of compliance as it may from time to time require for the purposes of monitoring compliance by Cooper and its subsidiaries with this Order. In particular, on 3 October 2014 and subsequently every two weeks (or, where this does not fall on a working day, the first working day thereafter) the Chief Executive Officer of Cooper or other persons of Cooper and/or Coopervision UK as agreed with the CMA shall, on behalf of Cooper and Coopervision UK, provide a statement to the CMA in the form set out in the Annex to this Order confirming compliance with this Order.
- 8. At all times, Cooper and Coopervision UK shall, or shall procure that Sauflon shall, actively keep the CMA informed of any material developments relating to the Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business, which includes but is not limited to:
 - (a) details of key staff who leave or join the Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business
 - (b) any interruption of the Sauflon Business or Cooper Business (including without limitation its procurement, production, logistics, sales and employee relations arrangements) that has prevented it from operating in the ordinary course of business for more than 24 hours

- (c) all substantial customer volumes won or lost or substantial changes to the customer contracts for the Sauflon Business or Cooper Business including any substantial changes in customers' demand, and
 - (d) substantial changes in the Sauflon Business' or Cooper Business' contractual arrangements or relationships with key suppliers.
9. If Cooper or Coopervision UK has any reason to suspect that this Order might have been breached it shall immediately notify the CMA and any monitoring trustee that Cooper and/or Coopervision UK may be directed to appoint under paragraph 10.
10. The CMA may give directions to a specified person or to a holder of a specified office in any body of persons (corporate or unincorporated) to take specified steps for the purpose of carrying out, or ensuring compliance with, this Order, or do or refrain from doing any specified action in order to ensure compliance with the Order. The CMA may vary or revoke any directions so given.
11. Cooper and Coopervision UK shall comply in so far as it is able with such directions as the CMA may from time to time give to take such steps as may be specified or described in the directions for the purpose of carrying out or securing compliance with this Order.

Interpretation

ANNEX

Compliance statement for Cooper

I [insert name] confirm on behalf of Cooper that:

Compliance in the Relevant Period

1. In the period from [insert date] to [insert date] (the Relevant Period):
 - (a) Cooper has complied with the Order made by the CMA in relation to the transaction on 19 September 2014 (the Order).
 - (b) Cooper's subsidiaries have also complied with this Order.
2. Subject to paragraph 3 of the Order, and except with the prior written consent of the CMA:
 - (a) No action has been taken by Cooper that might prejudice a reference of the transaction under section 22 of the Act or impede the taking of any action by the CMA which may be justified by its decision on such a reference, including any action which might:
 - (i) lead to the integration of the Sauflon Business with the Cooper Business
 - (ii) transfer the ownership or control of the Cooper Business or the Sauflon business or any of its subsidiaries, or
 - (iii) otherwise impair the ability of the Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business to compete independently in any of the markets affected by the transaction.
 - (b) The Sauflon Business and the Cooper Business have been maintained as a going concern and sufficient resources have been made available for the development of the Sauflon Business and the Cooper Business, on the basis of their pre-merger business plans.
 - (c) No changes have been made to the organisational structure of, or the management responsibilities within, the Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business, except in the ordinary course of business.

- (d) The nature, description, range and quality of goods and/or services supplied in the UK by the Sauflon Business and the Cooper Business have been maintained and preserved.
- (e) Except in the ordinary course of business for the separate operation of the two businesses:
 - (i) all of the assets of the Sauflon Business and the Cooper Business, including facilities and goodwill, have been maintained and preserved as at the start of the Relevant Period
 - (ii) none of the assets of the Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business have been disposed of, and
 - (iii) no interest in the assets of the Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business has been created or disposed of
- (f) There has been no integration of the information technology of the Sauflon Business or Cooper Business, and the software and hardware platforms of the Sauflon Business have remained essentially unchanged, except for routine changes and maintenance.
- (g) Subject to integration which had occurred prior to the commencement date, the customer and supplier lists of the two businesses have been operated and updated separately and any negotiations with any existing or potential customers and suppliers in relation to the Sauflon Business have been carried out by the Sauflon Business alone and, for the avoidance of doubt, Cooper has not negotiated on behalf of Sauflon (and vice versa) or entered into any joint agreements with Sauflon (and vice versa).
- (h) All existing contracts of the Sauflon Business and the Cooper Business have been serviced by the business to which they were awarded, except to the extent novated, assigned or subcontracted prior to the commencement date.
- (i) No changes have been made to key staff of the Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business.
- (j) No key staff have been transferred between the Sauflon Business and the Cooper Business.

- (k) All reasonable steps have been taken to encourage all key staff to remain with the Sauflon Business and the Cooper Business.
 - (l) Except as permitted by the Order, no business secrets, know-how, commercially-sensitive information, intellectual property or any other information of a confidential or proprietary nature relating to either of the two businesses, has passed, directly or indirectly, from Sauflon (or any of its employees, directors, agents or affiliates) to Cooper (or any of its employees, directors, agents or affiliates), or vice versa.
 - (m) Except as listed in paragraph (n) below, there have been no:
 - (i) key staff that have left or joined the Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business
 - (ii) interruptions of Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business (including without limitation procurement, production, logistics, sales and employee relations arrangements) that have prevented it from operating in the ordinary course of business for more than 24 hours
 - (iii) substantial customer volumes won or lost or substantial changes to the customer contracts for the Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business, or
 - (iv) substantial changes in the Sauflon Business' or Cooper Business' contractual arrangements or relationships with key suppliers
 - (n) [list of material developments]
3. Cooper and its subsidiaries remain in full compliance with the Order and will, or will procure that Sauflon, continue actively to keep the CMA informed of any material developments relating to the Sauflon Business or the Cooper Business in accordance with paragraph 8 of the Order.

Interpretation

4. Terms defined in the Order have the same meaning in this compliance statement.
