

ANTICIPATED ACQUISITION BY RECKITT BENCKISER GROUP PLC OF THE K-Y BRAND IN THE UK

Notice of acceptance of Final Undertakings from Johnson and Johnson pursuant to section 82 of and Schedule 10 of the Enterprise Act 2002

Background

1. On 7 January 2015, the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA), pursuant to section 33 (1) of the Enterprise Act (the Act), referred the anticipated acquisition of the K-Y business in the United Kingdom (UK), (the K-Y business in the UK), by Reckitt Benckiser Group plc and Reckitt Benckiser (Brands) Limited (the Acquirers) from McNeil-PPC, Inc. (on 29 June 2015 McNeil-PPC, Inc. changed its name to Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc.), a subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson and its affiliates (the Vendors), for further investigation and report by a group of CMA panel members (the inquiry group).
2. On 12 August 2015, the CMA published a report on the Anticipated acquisition by Reckitt Benckiser Group plc of the K-Y brand in the UK (the Report).
3. In the Report, the CMA concluded that:
 - (a) the anticipated acquisition by the Acquirers of the K-Y business in the UK may be expected to result in the creation of a relevant merger situation;
 - (b) the creation of that situation may be expected to result in a substantial lessening of competition (SLC) in the UK market for the supply of personal lubricants to grocery retailers and national pharmacy chains;
 - (c) the CMA should take action to remedy the SLC and the adverse effects likely to arise from it;
 - (d) undertakings should be given to the CMA or where undertakings are not agreed an order made to give effect to the remedies identified by the CMA in Section 12 of the Report; and

- (e) the creation of that situation may not be expected to result in an SLC in relation to the UK markets for the supply of personal lubricants in the online, specialist (adult) shops and independent pharmacies.
4. The Report further concluded that the anticipated acquisition of the K-Y business in the UK should be allowed to proceed on condition that prior to completion the Acquirers enter into an agreement to license the K-Y brand, rights and intellectual property rights in the UK in line with the criteria set out in section 12 of the Report, inter alia, on an exclusive, comprehensive and irrevocable basis for a total period of eight years, including a blackout period of at least one year, to enable the licensee to successfully transition from the K-Y brand to its own brand.
 5. In addition, the Report concluded that the commitment to license will be effected either by means of Undertakings provided by the Acquirers and accepted by the CMA or by an Order made by the CMA. Within [redacted] from when the Final Undertakings or Order are in place, the Acquirers would need to agree licensing arrangement(s) with a suitable licensee. Those arrangements would have to be approved by the CMA and conform to the criteria specified in Section 12 of the Report. If the remedy is not implemented within this period, the CMA reserved the right to require appointment of a trustee to oversee the licensing process to a suitable licensee at the cost of the Acquirers in order to ensure that the licensing arrangement(s) with a suitable licensee is in place.
 6. The CMA published a notice of proposal to accept Undertakings on 9 October 2015. No representations were received and the CMA has decided to accept Final Undertakings in the form set out in the attached annex.
 7. The CMA under section 82 of the Act now accepts the Final Undertakings as given by Johnson and Johnson. The reference has now been finally determined and the Final Undertakings come into force accordingly.
 8. This Notice and a non-confidential version of the Final Underakings will be published on the CMA website. The CMA has excluded from the non-confidential version of the Final Undertakings information which it considers should be excluded having regard to the three considerations set out in section 244 of the Act. These omissions are indicated by [redacted].
