

ANTICIPATED ACQUISITION BY RECKITT BENCKISER GROUP PLC OF THE K-Y BRAND IN THE UK

Notice of acceptance of Final Undertakings from Reckitt Benckiser Group plc and Reckitt Benckiser (Brands) Limited pursuant to section 82 of and Schedule 10 of the Enterprise Act 2002

Background

1. On 7 January 2015, the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA), pursuant to section 33 (1) of the Enterprise Act (the Act), referred the anticipated acquisition of the K-Y business in the United Kingdom (UK), (the K-Y business in the UK), by Reckitt Benckiser Group plc and Reckitt Benckiser (Brands) Limited (the Acquirers) from McNeil-PPC, Inc. (on 29 June 2015 McNeil-PPC, Inc. changed its name to Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc.), a subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson and its affiliates (the Vendors), for further investigation and report by a group of CMA panel members (the inquiry group).
2. On 12 August 2015, the CMA published a report on the Anticipated acquisition by Reckitt Benckiser Group plc of the K-Y brand in the UK (the Report).
3. In the Report, the CMA concluded that:
 - (a) the anticipated acquisition by the Acquirers of the K-Y business in the UK may be expected to result in the creation of a relevant merger situation;
 - (b) the creation of that situation may be expected to result in a substantial lessening of competition (SLC) in the UK market for the supply of personal lubricants to grocery retailers and national pharmacy chains;
 - (c) the CMA should take action to remedy the SLC and the adverse effects likely to arise from it;
 - (d) undertakings should be given to the CMA or where undertakings are not agreed an order made to give effect to the remedies identified by the CMA in Section 12 of the Report; and

- (e) the creation of that situation may not be expected to result in an SLC in relation to the UK markets for the supply of personal lubricants in the online, specialist (adult) shops and independent pharmacies.
4. The Report further concluded that the anticipated acquisition of the K-Y business in the UK should be allowed to proceed on condition that prior to completion the Acquirers enter into an agreement to license the K-Y brand, rights and intellectual property rights in the UK in line with the criteria set out in section 12 of the Report, inter alia, on an exclusive, comprehensive and irrevocable basis for a total period of eight years, including a blackout period of at least one year, to enable the licensee to successfully transition from the K-Y brand to its own brand.
 5. In addition, the Report concluded that the commitment to license will be effected either by means of Undertakings provided by the Acquirers and accepted by the CMA or by an Order made by the CMA. Within [X] from when the Final Undertakings or Order are in place, the Acquirers would need to agree licensing arrangement(s) with a suitable licensee. Those arrangements would have to be approved by the CMA and conform to the criteria specified in Section 12 of the Report. If the remedy is not implemented within this period, the CMA reserved the right to require appointment of a trustee to oversee the licensing process to a suitable licensee at the cost of the Acquirers in order to ensure that the licensing arrangement(s) with a suitable licensee is in place.
 6. The CMA published a notice of proposal to accept Undertakings on 9 October 2015. One party made representations on the Undertakings on which the CMA consulted. The representation concerned paragraph 4.15 with regard to the licensing of the right to use the K-Y formula in perpetuity. The CMA considered that paragraph 4.15 already achieved the desired aim as drafted given that the right to use the K-Y formula in perpetuity includes the licence to the intellectual property rights to the formula, if any. Therefore, no material change to the Undertakings on which the CMA consulted was necessary. The CMA has decided to accept Final Undertakings in the form set out in the attached annex.
 7. The CMA under section 82 of the Act now accepts the Final Undertakings as given by Reckitt Benckiser Group plc and Reckitt Benckiser (Brands) Limited. The reference has now been finally determined and the Final Undertakings come into force accordingly.
 8. This Notice and a non-confidential version of the Final Underakings will be published on the CMA website. The CMA has excluded from the non-confidential version of the Final Undertakings information which it considers should be excluded having regard to the three considerations set out in section 244 of the Act. These omissions are indicated by [✂].

ANTICIPATED ACQUISITION BY RECKITT BENCKISER GROUP PLC OF THE K-Y BRAND IN THE UK

Undertakings given to the Competition and Markets Authority by Reckitt Benckiser Group plc and Reckitt Benckiser (Brands) Limited pursuant to section 82 of the Enterprise Act 2002

- (a) On 7 January 2015, the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA), pursuant to section 33 (1) of the Enterprise Act (the Act), referred the anticipated acquisition of the K-Y business in the United Kingdom (UK), (the K-Y business in the UK), by Reckitt Benckiser Group plc and Reckitt Benckiser (Brands) Limited (the Acquirers) from McNeil-PPC, Inc., a subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson and its affiliates (the Vendors), for further investigation and report by a group of CMA panel members (the inquiry group).
- (b) On 12 August 2015 the CMA, published a report on the Anticipated acquisition by Reckitt Benckiser Group plc of the K-Y brand in the UK (the Report).
- (c) In the Report, the CMA concluded that:
- (i) the anticipated acquisition by Reckitt Benckiser Group plc of the K-Y business in the UK may be expected to result in the creation of a relevant merger situation;
 - (ii) the creation of that situation may be expected to result in a substantial lessening of competition (SLC) in the UK market for the supply of personal lubricants to grocery retailers and national pharmacy chains;
 - (iii) the CMA should take action to remedy the SLC and the adverse effects likely to arise from it;
 - (iv) undertakings should be given to the CMA or where undertakings are not agreed an order made to give effect to the remedies identified by the CMA in Chapter 12 of the Report; and
 - (v) the creation of that situation may not be expected to result in an SLC in relation to the UK markets for the supply of personal lubricants in the online, specialist (adult) shops and independent pharmacies.

- (d) The Report further concluded that the anticipated acquisition of the K-Y business in the UK should be allowed to proceed on condition that prior to completion the Acquirers enter into an agreement to license the K-Y brand, rights and intellectual property rights in the UK in line with the criteria set out in Chapter 12 of the Report, inter alia, on an exclusive, comprehensive and irrevocable basis for a total period of eight years, including a blackout period of at least one year, to enable the licensee to successfully transition from the K-Y brand to its own brand.
- (e) In addition, the Report concluded that the commitment to license will be effected either by means of undertakings provided by the Acquirers and accepted by the CMA or by an order made by the CMA. Within [X] from when the final undertakings or order are in place, the Acquirers would need to agree licensing arrangement(s) with a suitable licensee. Those arrangements would have to be approved by the CMA and conform to the criteria specified in Chapter 12 of the Report. If the remedy is not implemented within this period, the CMA reserved the right to require appointment of a trustee to oversee the licensing process to a suitable licensee at the cost of the Acquirers in order to ensure that the licensing arrangement(s) with a suitable licensee is in place.

- 4.9 As an exception to the requirements of paragraph 4.8, the Acquirers, may produce K-Y personal lubricants in the UK if the Approved Licensee requires the Acquirers to supply the K-Y personal lubricants to the Approved Licensee, for example for a transitional period pursuant to paragraph 4.10, or where the K-Y personal lubricants produced in the UK are marketed and sold by the Acquirers outside the UK.

- 4.10 The Acquirers undertake that at the request of the Approved Licensee the Existing SKUs will be supplied at cost (including transport costs) during a transitional period of up to 12 months from the date the Approved Licensing Agreement(s) comes into effect in order to allow the Approved Licensee to set up its own manufacturing or independent production arrangements.
- 4.11 The Acquirers undertake to permit the use by the Approved Licensee of the K-Y brand : a) alone under the K-Y brand or on a co-branding basis for the supply of the Existing SKUs and b) only on a co-branding basis for the supply of personal lubricant products, other than the Existing SKUs. For the purposes of these Undertakings, co-branding means the use of the K-Y brand in conjunction with another brand.
- 4.12 The Acquirers undertake to accept a one-off payment for use of the licence under the Approved Licensing Agreement(s) with no annual or other periodic licensing fees.
- 4.13 The Acquirers undertake to procure from the Vendors or to use all reasonable endeavours to supply themselves additional Transitional Services to those set out in paragraph 4.9 above if requested by the Approved Licensee and to the extent these would have been provided to the Acquirers under the Asset Purchase Agreement between the Acquirers and the Vendors. Any costs associated with the supply of these additional Transitional Services will be borne by the Approved Licensee.
- 4.14 The Acquirers undertake to transfer to the Approved Licensee all rights, title and interests in existing contracts regarding the supply of personal lubricant products under the K-Y brand in the UK.

- 4.16 If requested by the Approved Licensee, the Acquirers undertake to transfer to the Approved Licensee all rights, title and interests in existing contracts to supply personal lubricant products to the NHS. For the avoidance of doubt, this provision does not oblige the Approved Licensee to supply personal lubricant products to the NHS.
- 4.17 The Acquirers undertake to carry out these Undertakings having due regard to the findings in Chapter 12 of the Report and in accordance with the terms specified by the CMA therein.

- 4.18 The Acquirers recognise that in considering whether to approve any agreement(s) the CMA shall consider whether the terms of the Licensing Agreement(s) and any other agreements or arrangements ancillary or connected to the Licensing Agreement(s) would give rise to a material risk that the Licensing Agreement(s) (in whole or in part) would not remedy the SLC and any adverse effects likely to arise from it.
- 4.19 The Acquirers undertake that as of the Commencement Date neither they nor their subsidiaries nor any Related Person shall take any action (inclusive of the exercise of contractual rights and/or obligations/exercise of intellectual property rights) which:
- 4.19.1 impedes the taking of any action under the Act which may be justified by the CMA's decisions in the Report; or
- 4.19.2 frustrates compliance with these Undertakings.
- 4.20 Should a breach by the Vendors, including a breach of the Vendors' Undertakings or Order(s) occurs, the Acquirers undertake to use all contractual courses of action available to them pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement(s) against the Vendors for the purpose of complying with these Undertakings. Provided the Acquirers have used all reasonable endeavours to comply and have exercised their contractual rights against the Vendors for this purpose, the inability of the Acquirers to comply with the relevant provision of the Undertakings shall not be considered a deliberate breach. However, in such circumstances, the CMA reserves the right to review whether the Undertakings remain capable of substantial compliance with a view to delivering the remedy set out in the Report and if necessary, to reconsider whether the conditions of the Merger being allowed to complete are capable of being met.

5. Procedure for consent and notification

- 5.1 The Acquirers undertake that where they require the consent or approval of the CMA (however that requirement is expressed in these Undertakings) they will seek the consent or approval in writing, which shall include email.
- 5.2 The Acquirers undertake that any application by them for the CMA's consent or approval shall make full disclosure of every material fact and matter within their knowledge that they believe is relevant to the CMA's decision.
- 5.3 The Acquirers recognise that where the CMA grants consent or approval on the basis of misleading or incomplete information and such information materially affects its consent or approval, the consent or approval is voidable at the election of the CMA.

- 5.4 In the event that the Acquirers discover that an application for consent or approval has been made without full disclosure to the CMA, the Acquirers undertake to:
- 5.4.1 inform the CMA in writing identifying the information that they omitted to include in the application for consent within 2 Working Days of becoming aware that the relevant information is misleading or incomplete; and
 - 5.4.2 at the same time or no later than 2 Working Days starting with the date on which it has informed the CMA of the omission in accordance with paragraph 5.4.1 above, provide to the CMA an application for consent that includes the missing information.
- 5.5 Unless a different period is expressly provided for in these Undertakings, the Acquirers shall use all reasonable endeavours to make each application or to procure that each application, for consent or approval is made so that it is received by the CMA at least 5 Working Days, or such lesser period as the CMA may allow, before the day on which the CMA's consent or approval is necessary to avoid a breach of these Undertakings.
- 5.6 The Acquirers recognise that the CMA shall not be required to use more than its reasonable endeavours to grant or refuse any consent or approval within the period referred to in paragraph 5.5 above in particular where the CMA considers that it is necessary to carry out an investigation or to consult any other person prior to granting such consent or approval.
- 5.7 Where in the Acquirers' reasonable opinion they have identified preferred Candidate Licensees with an interest in the licensing of the Licensed Operations of the K-Y Business and meeting the requirements listed in Appendix 2, the Acquirers shall promptly apply to the CMA for a decision on whether or not any of these constitute an Approved Licensee. In order for the Candidate Licensee(s) to satisfy the CMA's Licensee Approval Requirements as set out in Appendix 2 to these Undertakings, the Acquirers shall use all reasonable endeavours to assist the CMA in obtaining further information from the Candidate Licensee(s) where necessary.
- 5.8 The Acquirers recognise that in order to bring about an Approved Licensing Agreement(s), the CMA must approve any binding agreement relating to the licensing of the Licensed Operations (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld). The final draft Approved Licensing Agreement(s) and all necessary agreements and documentation shall be sent to the CMA promptly for approval but no later than 10 Working Days before the day on which the agreement(s) will be signed.

6. Licensing Reporting Obligations

- 6.1 The Acquirers undertake that within the period of 5 Working Days from the Commencement Date they will provide a written report to the CMA setting out the timetable that they propose to adopt, subject to the CMA's approval, and how they propose to ensure that the Approved Licensing Agreement(s) is entered into during the Divestiture Period (the 'Approved Timetable'). The report will outline the progress that the Acquirers have made towards entering into the Approved Licensing Agreement(s) and the steps that have otherwise been taken to comply with the Undertakings and shall in particular report on:
- 6.1.1 the status of any discussions that have been held with Candidate Licensees and progress made regarding entering into the Approved Licensing Agreement(s); and
 - 6.1.2 the status of any information sent to Candidate Licensees and the identities of the persons to whom it has been circulated and the responses received; and
 - 6.1.3 such other matters as may be directed by the CMA from time to time.
- 6.2 The Acquirers undertake to provide such reports to the CMA every four weeks until the Approved Licensing Agreement(s) has been entered into effect. The reports will include any developments relating to the licensing process and an update on the progress that has been made since the last report. If a Trustee is appointed, with the consent of the CMA such reports may be provided through the Trustee.
- 6.3 The Acquirers undertake that in the report to the CMA they shall, inter alia, provide to the CMA:
- 6.3.1 to the extent this has been provided to the Acquirers, the name, address, email address, contact person and telephone number of each Candidate Licensee who has expressed an interest in entering into an Approved Licensing Agreement(s) since the publication of the CMA's final Report;
 - 6.3.2 the steps that have otherwise been taken to comply with these Undertakings, including information as listed in paragraphs 6.1.1 to 6.1.3 above.
- 6.4 In the event that the Acquirers do not meet a step as set out in the Approved Timetable, or are otherwise delayed in implementing any requirement of these Undertakings, the Acquirers undertake to inform the CMA in writing of the occurrence and the reasons for the failure promptly, but not later than 2

Working Days of becoming aware that a step in the Approved Timetable has not been met.

7. Trustee – appointment procedure and functions

- 7.1 As mentioned in paragraph 4.2. and without prejudice to the CMA's order-making power under section 83 of the Act, if no Approved Licensing Agreement(s) has been entered into and effected during the Divestiture Period, the Acquirers undertake that by no later than 5 Working Days following the expiry of the Divestiture Period, they shall secure at their cost the appointment of a Trustee to give effect to the Trustee Obligation, oversee the licensing process on behalf of the CMA and ensure that an Approved Licensing Agreement(s) to an Approved Licensee for the Licence Period is entered into effect.
- 7.2 The appointment of the Trustee and his terms and conditions must be approved by the CMA. The Acquirers must inform the CMA of the identity of the proposed Trustee as soon as is reasonably practical and in any event by no later than 2 days after the expiry of the Divestiture Period and provide the CMA with draft terms and conditions of appointment.
- 7.3 The proposal shall contain sufficient information for the CMA to verify that each proposed person fulfils the requirements set out in paragraph 7.4 below and shall include, inter alia:
- 7.3.1 the full terms of the proposed mandate, which shall include all provisions necessary to enable the Trustee to fulfil the Trustee Obligation; and
- 7.3.2 a schedule of the steps to be taken to give effect to the mandate.
- 7.4 The Trustee must possess appropriate qualifications and experience to carry out its functions. The Trustee must act on behalf of the CMA and be under an obligation to the CMA to carry out his functions to the best of his abilities. The Trustee must neither have been or have become exposed to a conflict of interest that impairs the Trustee's objectivity and independence in discharging his duties under these Undertakings, unless it can be resolved in a manner and within a time frame acceptable to the CMA.
