

Journey map

This tool helps us understand how a user experiences a service or policy before, during and after it. It can also be used to help us understand the service providers perspective and generate ideas.

User actions

What did the user do?

User emotions

How was the user feeling?

User needs

What is the user trying to accomplish?