BRIEF GUIDELINES

At the start of the interview please introduce yourself to the respondent, explain that the questionnaire is a continuation of the research with the experimental games and politely ask if they are willing to be interviewed.

This questionnaire is for the male spouse; the female spouse should be interviewed using another questionnaire.

Please stick to both wording and sequence of the questionnaire as much as possible.

Questions addressed to the respondent are given on the right (recto) side of the questionnaire while codes are given on the left (verso) side.

All the questions to be addressed to respondents are given in normal fonts while all instructions to enumerators are in italics.

The following codes should be used throughout all sections of the questionnaire.

666 = others, specify (enumerators should specify/write down what the 'other' stands for)

777 = I don't know

888 = not applicable

999 = not willing to answer

Don't change code numbers; for example, if codes are not relevant for the research site do not change the other codes to have consecutive numbers.

For anthropometrics, make sure that the weight (bathroom) scale is working properly. It is good to check the scale frequently by weighing oneself.

Make sure that the ground is hard for weighing people (weighing on soft surfaces wouldn't give you accurate measurements).

Measure the height of babies while they are lying down.

9. NORMS AND PRACTICES (PART 1)

I would now like to ask you some questions about what you think is proper for husbands and wives.

Please tell me on a scale of 1-4, whether you agree or disagree with the following statements:

Read out the options if respondent doesn't understand a scale of 1-4

- 9.1 A man should have the final say in all family matters
- 9.2 If a woman works she should give her money to her husband
- 9.3 A woman needs her husband's permission to do paid work
- 9.4 It is a woman's job mainly to take care of the home and cook for her family
A woman should always follow instructions whether she likes them or not, by
- 9.5 elders (particularly by her in-laws.)
- 9.6 A wife should tolerate being beaten in order to keep her family together
- 9.7 Boys should get priority when family cannot send all children to school
- 9.8 It is better to let the wife handle the money of the house
