

The Political Economy of Avian Influenza: SE Asia country study workshop

26 & 27 February 2009, Lansdowne Place Hotel, Brighton

Programme

Wednesday 25 Feb 2009

- 18.45 Gather in the lobby of the Lansdowne Place Hotel (depart 18.50 for restaurant)
- 19.00 Welcome dinner, La Fourchette, 104-105 Western Road, Brighton BN1 2AA (see map)

Thursday 26 Feb 2009

- 9.00 Opening – welcome and introductions (Ian)
- 9.30 Background to the project – the international response study (a quick overview), and the national case studies – key questions posed (Ian)
- 10.00 Comparative dimensions: a review of the four comparative tables. What are the key axes of comparison across the four cases? Why are these interesting? Identification of key themes to interrogate the case studies (Group)
- 10.30 Tea/coffee
- 11.00 Case study 1: Cambodia (Sopha)

In each case, a discussant to comment, followed by open discussion and summing up (highlighting suggestions for any revisions to the paper)
- 12.00 Case study 2: Vietnam (Tuong Vu)
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 Case study 3: Indonesia (Paul)
- 15.00 Case study 4: Thailand (Rachel)
- 16.00 Tea/coffee

16.30 Review of lessons learned in relation to the comparative framework

17.30 Close

19.00 Dinner, the Lansdowne Place Hotel Restaurant

Friday 27 Feb 2009

9.00 Commentaries on case study findings: implications for national and international responses (invited participants reflecting different institutional/professional perspectives)

Open discussion

10.30 Tea/coffee

11.00 The 'One World, One Health' initiative: what are the key political economy/governance issues emerging? Lessons from the international response to avian influenza.

- Overview of the OWOH initiative: challenges and opportunities
- Reflections on lessons from this research
- Key governance issues emerging

12.30 Lunch

14.00 Identification of key principles for a governance framework, based on the case studies

15.30 Next steps: Chatham House meetings, Canada meeting etc.

16.00 Tea/coffee and close of workshop

16.30 Meeting for the study team

19.00 Dinner, the Lansdowne Place Hotel Restaurant (for those staying overnight in Brighton)

Travel information

NB: unless you have pre-booked taxi collection we assume you will be coming to Brighton by coach, rail or car.

From Heathrow Airport take a National Express Coach to Brighton. Please take a taxi to the hotel.

From Gatwick Airport take a train to Brighton. Please take a taxi to the hotel.

From Brighton rail station, please take a taxi to the hotel.

Contacts

Lansdowne Place Hotel
Lansdowne Place
Brighton
East Sussex BN3 1HQ
Tel: +44 (0) 1273 715 380

La Fourchette Restaurant
104-105 Western Road
Brighton BN1 2AA
Tel: +44 (0) 1273 722 556

Taxi: +44 (0) 1273 20 20 20; +44 (0) 1273 74 74 74

David Hayde's mobile (for pre-booked taxis only): +44 (0) 7812 541 130

Harriet's mobile: 07825 652 969

Map

