

COMPLETED ACQUISITION BY EURO CAR PARTS LIMITED OF ASSETS OF THE ANDREW PAGE BUSINESS

Initial Enforcement Order made by the Competition and Markets Authority pursuant to section 72(2) of the Enterprise Act 2002 (the Act)

Whereas:

- (a) the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA) has reasonable grounds for suspecting that it is or may be the case that ECP Newco Limited (ECP Newco) and certain assets of Andrew Page Limited, Solid Auto (U.K.) Limited and Colton Parts Company Limited (AP) have ceased to be distinct;
- (b) the CMA is considering, pursuant to section 22 of the Act, whether it is or may be the case that a relevant merger situation has been created and whether the creation of that situation has resulted or may be expected to result in a substantial lessening of competition in any market or markets in the United Kingdom (UK);
- (c) the CMA wishes to ensure that no action is taken pending final determination of any reference under section 22 of the Act which might prejudice that reference or impede the taking of any action by the CMA under Part 3 of the Act which might be justified by the CMA's decisions on the reference; and
- (d) the circumstances set out in section 72(6) of the Act do not apply and the reference has not been finally determined in accordance with section 79(1) of the Act.

Now for the purposes of preventing pre-emptive action in accordance with section 72(2) of the Act the CMA makes the following order addressed to Euro Car Parts Limited, LKQ Euro Limited and LKQ Corporation (LKQ) and ECP Newco (the Order).

Commencement, application and scope

1. This Order commences on the commencement date: 12 October 2016.
2. This Order applies to LKQ and ECP Newco.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Order, no act or omission shall constitute a breach of this Order, and nothing in this Order shall oblige LKQ or ECP Newco to reverse any act or omission, in each case to the extent that it occurred or was completed prior to the commencement date.

Management of the LKQ and AP businesses until determination of proceedings

4. Except with the prior written consent of the CMA, LKQ and ECP Newco shall not, during the specified period, take any action which might prejudice a reference of the transaction under section 22 of the Act or impede the taking of any action under the Act by the CMA which may be justified by the CMA's decisions on such a reference, including any action which might:
  - (a) lead to the integration of the AP business with the LKQ business;
  - (b) transfer the ownership or control of the LKQ business or the AP business or any of their subsidiaries; or
  - (c) otherwise impair the ability of the AP business or the LKQ business to compete independently in any of the markets affected by the transaction.
5. Further and without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 4 and subject to paragraph 3, LKQ and ECP Newco shall at all times during the specified period procure that, except with the prior written consent of the CMA:
  - (a) the AP business is carried on separately from the LKQ business and the AP business's separate sales or brand identity is maintained;
  - (b) the AP business and the LKQ business are maintained as a going concern and sufficient resources are made available for the development of the AP business and the LKQ business, on the basis of their respective pre-merger business plans;
  - (c) except in the ordinary course of business, no substantive changes are made to the organisational structure of, or the management responsibilities within, the AP business or the LKQ business;
  - (d) the nature, description, range and quality of goods and/or services supplied in the UK by each of the two businesses are maintained and preserved;
  - (e) except in the ordinary course of business for the separate operation of the two businesses:

- (i) all of the assets of the AP business and the LKQ business are maintained and preserved, including facilities and goodwill;
  - (ii) none of the assets of the AP business or the LKQ business are disposed of; and
  - (iii) no interest in the assets of the AP business or the LKQ business is created or disposed of;
- (f) there is no integration of the information technology of the AP or LKQ businesses, and the software and hardware platforms of the AP business shall remain essentially unchanged, except for routine changes and maintenance;
- (g) the customer and supplier lists of the two businesses shall be operated and updated separately and any negotiations with any existing or potential customers and suppliers in relation to the AP business will be carried out by the AP business alone and for the avoidance of doubt the LKQ business will not negotiate on behalf of the AP business (and vice versa) or enter into any joint agreements with the AP business (and vice versa);
- (h) all existing contracts of the AP business and the LKQ business continue to be serviced by the business to which they were awarded;
- (i) no changes are made to key staff of the AP business or LKQ business;
- (j) no key staff are transferred between the AP business and the LKQ business;
- (k) all reasonable steps are taken to encourage all key staff to remain with the AP business and the LKQ business; and
- (l) no business secrets, know-how, commercially-sensitive information, intellectual property or any other information of a confidential or proprietary nature relating to either of the two businesses shall pass, directly or indirectly, from the AP business (or any of its employees, directors, agents or affiliates) to the LKQ business (or any of its employees, directors, agents or affiliates), or vice versa, except where strictly necessary in the ordinary course of business (for example, where required for compliance with external regulatory and/or accounting obligations) and on the basis that, should the transaction be prohibited, any records or copies (electronic or otherwise) of such information that have passed, wherever they may be held, will be returned to the business to which they relate and any copies destroyed.

Compliance

6. LKQ and ECP Newco shall procure that each of their subsidiaries complies with this Order as if the Order had been issued to each of them.
7. LKQ and ECP Newco shall provide to the CMA such information or statement of compliance as it may from time to time require for the purposes of monitoring compliance by LKQ and ECP Newco and their subsidiaries with this Order. In particular, on 26 October 2016 and subsequently every two weeks (or, where this does not fall on a working day, the first working day thereafter) the Chief Executive Officers of LKQ and ECP Newco or other persons of LKQ and ECP Newco as agreed with the CMA shall, on behalf of LKQ and ECP Newco, provide a statement to the CMA in the form set out in the Annex to this Order confirming compliance with this Order.
8. At all times, LKQ and ECP Newco shall, or shall procure that AP shall, actively keep the CMA informed of any material developments relating to the AP business or the LKQ business, which includes but is not limited to:
  - (a) details of key staff who leave or join the AP business or the LKQ business;
  - (b) any interruption of the AP or LKQ business (including without limitation its procurement, production, logistics, sales and employee relations arrangements) that has prevented it from operating in the ordinary course of business for more than 24 hours;
  - (c) all substantial customer volumes won or lost or substantial changes to the customer contracts for the AP or LKQ business including any substantial changes in customers' demand; and
  - (d) substantial changes in the AP or LKQ business's contractual arrangements or relationships with key suppliers.
9. If LKQ or ECP Newco has any reason to suspect that this Order might have been breached it shall immediately notify the CMA and any monitoring trustee that LKQ and/or ECP Newco may be directed to appoint under paragraph 10.
10. The CMA may give directions to a specified person or to a holder of a specified office in any body of persons (corporate or unincorporated) to take specified steps for the purpose of carrying out, or ensuring compliance with, this Order, or do or refrain from doing any specified action in order to ensure compliance with the Order. The CMA may vary or revoke any directions so given.

11. LKQ and ECP Newco shall comply in so far as they are able with such directions as the CMA may from time to time give to take such steps as may be specified or described in the directions for the purpose of carrying out or securing compliance with this Order.
