

ENERGY MARKET INVESTIGATION

The Energy Market Investigation (ECOES/DES) Order 2016

Notice of intention to make an Order under section 165 of, and Schedule 10 to, the Enterprise Act 2002 and public consultation on the proposed Order

Background

1. On 26 June 2014, the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority, in exercise of its powers under sections 131 and 133 of the Enterprise Act 2002 (the Act) (as provided for by section 36A of the Gas Act 1986 (GA86) and section 43 of the Electricity Act 1989 (EA89)), made an ordinary reference to the Chair of the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA) for the constitution of a group under Schedule 4 to the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013 for an investigation into the supply and acquisition of energy in Great Britain.<sup>1</sup>
2. The CMA investigated the matters referred to it pursuant to sections 131 and 133 of the Act and concluded (a) in accordance with section 134(1) of the Act that there are features of the markets for the supply and acquisition of energy in Great Britain which, either alone or in combination, prevent, restrict or distort competition; and (b) in accordance with section 134(2) of the Act, that there are adverse effects on competition (AEC). The CMA published its findings in a report under section 136 of the Act entitled Energy market investigation: Final report published on 24 June 2016 (the Report).
3. One of the AECs identified by the CMA was the Domestic Weak Customer Response AEC. The features identified by the CMA as giving rise to the Domestic Weak Customer AEC were the following:
  - (a) Customers have limited awareness of, and interest in, their ability to switch energy supplier, which arises in particular from the following fundamental characteristics of the domestic retail gas and electricity supply markets: (i) the homogeneous nature of gas and electricity; and (ii) the role of traditional meters and bills.

- (b) Customers face actual and perceived barriers to accessing and assessing information arising, in particular, from the following aspects of the domestic retail gas and electricity markets: (i) the complex information provided in bills and the structure of tariffs; and (ii) a lack of confidence in, and access to, PCWs by certain categories of customers, including the less well-educated and the less well-off.
  - (c) Customers face actual and perceived barriers to switching, such as where they experience erroneous transfers which have the potential to cause material detriment to those who suffer from them.
- 4. The CMA considered, in accordance with section 134(4) of the Act,
  - (a) whether action should be taken by it for the purpose of remedying, mitigating or preventing the AECs or any detrimental effect on consumers;
  - (b) whether it should recommend the taking of action by others for the purpose of remedying, mitigating or preventing the AECs or any detrimental effect on consumers; and
  - (c) in either case, if action should be taken, what action should be taken and what is to be remedied, mitigated or prevented.
- 5. In the Report, the CMA decided upon a package of remedies to remedy, mitigate or prevent the AECs and/or associated detriment that it found.
- 6. By virtue of section 138(3) of the Act, the remedies implemented by the CMA must be consistent with the findings in the Report unless there has been a 'material change of circumstances' since preparation of the Report or the CMA otherwise has a 'special reason' for deciding differently.
- 7. In accordance with section 165 and paragraph 2(1)(a) of Schedule 10 of the Act, the CMA hereby gives notice of its intention to make an Order on the terms attached to this Notice (the Draft Order).
- 8. A draft Explanatory Note accompanying the Draft Order provides an explanation of how the Draft Order is expected to operate.
- 9. This Notice and the Draft Order, together with the draft Explanatory Note, have been published on the CMA website.
- 10. The CMA invites written representations on the proposed Order from any interested person or persons. The CMA will have regard to any representations made in response to this Notice. The CMA may also make modifications to the proposed Order as a result of any representations. If the CMA considers that any representation necessitates a material change to the proposed Order, the CMA will give notice of the proposed modifications.

11. Representations should reach the CMA by 5pm on 18 November 2016
Representations should be made in writing and should be addressed to:
