
Data discovery

Doing your project well

What is the minimum level of data intrusion necessary to meet your aim?

What are the unintended consequences?

How compatible is your personal data with the reason it is connected?

What is the quality of your data?

What would the public think about your project?

How much oversight and accountability is there throughout project?

How are you being open
about your project?

