

ACQUISITION BY SURVITEC GROUP LIMITED OF THE MARINE SAFETY BUSINESS OF WILHELMSSEN MARITIME SERVICES A/S

Initial Enforcement Order made by the Competition and Markets Authority pursuant to section 72(2) of the Enterprise Act 2002 (the Act)

Whereas:

- (a) the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA) has reasonable grounds for suspecting that it is or may be the case that Survitec Group Limited and the marine safety business of Wilhelmsen Maritime Services A/S (Wilhelmsen Safety) have ceased to be distinct;
- (b) the CMA is considering, pursuant to section 22 of the Act, whether it is or may be the case that a relevant merger situation has been created and whether the creation of that situation has resulted or may be expected to result in a substantial lessening of competition in any market or markets in the United Kingdom (UK);
- (c) the CMA wishes to ensure that no action is taken pending final determination of any reference under section 22 of the Act which might prejudice that reference or impede the taking of any action by the CMA under Part 3 of the Act which might be justified by the CMA's decisions on the reference; and
- (d) the circumstances set out in section 72(6) of the Act do not apply and the reference has not been finally determined in accordance with section 79(1) of the Act.

Now for the purposes of preventing pre-emptive action in accordance with section 72(2) of the Act the CMA makes the following order addressed to Survitec Topco Limited (Survitec Topco) and Survitec Group Limited (Survitec) (Order).

Commencement, application and scope

1. This Order commences on the commencement date: 1 December 2016.
2. This Order applies to Survitec Topco Limited and Survitec Group Limited.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Order, no act or omission shall constitute a breach of this Order, and nothing in this Order shall oblige Survitec Topco or Survitec to reverse any act or omission, in each case to the extent that it occurred or was completed prior to the commencement date.

Management of the Survitec Topco and Wilhelmsen Safety businesses until determination of proceedings

4. Except with the prior written consent of the CMA, Survitec Topco and Survitec shall not, during the specified period, take any action which might prejudice a reference of the transaction under section 22 of the Act or impede the taking of any action under the Act by the CMA which may be justified by the CMA's decisions on such a reference, including any action which might:
 - (a) lead to the integration of the Wilhelmsen Safety business with the Survitec Topco business;
 - (b) transfer the ownership or control of the Survitec Topco business or the Wilhelmsen Safety business or any of their subsidiaries; or
 - (c) otherwise impair the ability of the Wilhelmsen Safety business or the Survitec Topco business to compete independently in any of the markets affected by the transaction.
5. Further and without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 4 and subject to paragraph 3, Survitec Topco and Survitec shall at all times during the specified period procure that, except with the prior written consent of the CMA:
 - (a) the Wilhelmsen Safety business is carried on separately from the Survitec Topco business and the Wilhelmsen Safety business's separate sales or brand identity is maintained;
 - (b) the Wilhelmsen Safety business and the Survitec Topco business are maintained as a going concern and sufficient resources are made available for the development of the Wilhelmsen Safety business and the Survitec Topco business, on the basis of their respective pre-merger business plans;
 - (c) except in the ordinary course of business, no substantive changes are made to the organisational structure of, or the management responsibilities within, the Wilhelmsen Safety business or the Survitec Topco business;

- (d) the nature, description, range and quality of goods and/or services supplied in the UK by each of the two businesses are maintained and preserved;
- (e) except in the ordinary course of business for the separate operation of the two businesses:
 - (i) all of the assets of the Wilhelmsen Safety business and the Survitec Topco business are maintained and preserved, including facilities and goodwill;
 - (ii) none of the assets of the Wilhelmsen Safety business or the Survitec Topco business are disposed of; and
 - (iii) no interest in the assets of the Wilhelmsen Safety business or the Survitec Topco business is created or disposed of;
- (f) there is no integration of the information technology of the Wilhelmsen Safety or Survitec Topco businesses, and the software and hardware platforms of the Wilhelmsen Safety business shall remain essentially unchanged, except for routine changes and maintenance;
- (g) the customer and supplier lists of the two businesses shall be operated and updated separately and any negotiations with any existing or potential customers and suppliers in relation to the Wilhelmsen Safety business will be carried out by the Wilhelmsen Safety business alone and for the avoidance of doubt the Survitec Topco business will not negotiate on behalf of the Wilhelmsen Safety business (and vice versa) or enter into any joint agreements with the Wilhelmsen Safety business (and vice versa);
- (h) all existing contracts of the Wilhelmsen Safety business and the Survitec Topco business continue to be serviced by the business to which they were awarded;
- (i) no changes are made to key staff of the Wilhelmsen Safety business or Survitec Topco business;
- (j) no key staff are transferred between the Wilhelmsen Safety business and the Survitec Topco business;
- (k) all reasonable steps are taken to encourage all key staff to remain with the Wilhelmsen Safety business and the Survitec Topco business; and
- (l) no business secrets, know-how, commercially-sensitive information, intellectual property or any other information of a confidential or proprietary nature relating to either of the two businesses shall pass, directly or indirectly, from the Wilhelmsen Safety business (or any of its employees, directors, agents or affiliates) to the Survitec Topco business (or any of its employees, directors, agents or affiliates), or vice versa, except where strictly necessary in the ordinary course of business (for example, where required for compliance with external regulatory and/or accounting obligations) and on the basis that, should the transaction be prohibited, any records or copies (electronic or otherwise) of such information that have passed, wherever they may be held, will be returned to the business to which they relate and any copies destroyed.

Compliance

6. Survitec Topco and Survitec shall procure that each of their subsidiaries complies with this Order as if the Order had been issued to each of them.
7. Survitec Topco and Survitec shall provide to the CMA such information or statement of compliance as it may from time to time require for the purposes of monitoring compliance by Survitec Topco and Survitec and their subsidiaries with this Order. In particular, on 15 December 2016] and subsequently every two weeks (or, where this does not fall on a working day, the first working day thereafter) the Chief Executive Officer of Survitec Topco and Survitec or other persons of Survitec Topco and Survitec as agreed with the CMA shall, on behalf of Survitec Topco and Survitec, provide a statement to the CMA in the form set out in the Annex to this Order confirming compliance with this Order.
8. At all times, Survitec Topco and Survitec shall, or shall procure that Wilhelmsen Safety shall, actively keep the CMA informed of any material developments relating to the Wilhelmsen Safety business or the Survitec Topco business, which includes but is not limited to:
 - (a) details of key staff who leave or join the Wilhelmsen Safety business or the Survitec Topco business;
 - (b) any interruption of the Wilhelmsen Safety or Survitec Topco business (including without limitation its procurement, production, logistics, sales and employee relations arrangements) that has prevented it from operating in the ordinary course of business for more than 24 hours;
 - (c) all substantial customer volumes won or lost or substantial changes to the customer contracts for the Wilhelmsen Safety or Survitec Topco business including any substantial changes in customers' demand; and

- (d) substantial changes in the Wilhelmsen Safety or Survitec Topco business's contractual arrangements or relationships with key suppliers.
9. If Survitec Topco or Survitec has any reason to suspect that this Order might have been breached it shall immediately notify the CMA and any monitoring trustee that Survitec Topco and/or Survitec may be directed to appoint under paragraph 10.
 10. The CMA may give directions to a specified person or to a holder of a specified office in any body of persons (corporate or unincorporated) to take specified steps for the purpose of carrying out, or ensuring compliance with, this Order, or do or refrain from doing any specified action in order to ensure compliance with the Order. The CMA may vary or revoke any directions so given.
 11. Survitec Topco and Survitec shall comply in so far as they are able with such directions as the CMA may from time to time give to take such steps as may be specified or described in the directions for the purpose of carrying out or securing compliance with this Order.

Interpretation

12. The Interpretation Act 1978 shall apply to this Order as it does to Acts of Parliament.
13. For the purposes of this Order:

Compliance statement for Survitec Topco

I [insert name] confirm on behalf of Survitec Topco that:

Compliance in the Relevant Period

1. In the period from [insert date] to [insert date] (the Relevant Period):
 - (a) Survitec Topco has complied with the Order made by the CMA in relation to the transaction on 1 December 2016 (the Order).
 - (b) Survitec Topco's subsidiaries have also complied with this Order.
2. Subject to paragraph 3 of the Order, and except with the prior written consent of the CMA:
 - (a) No action has been taken by Survitec Topco that might prejudice a reference of the transaction under section 22 of the Act or impede the taking of any action by the CMA which may be justified by its decision on such a reference, including any action which might:
 - (i) lead to the integration of the Wilhelmsen Safety business with the Survitec Topco business;
 - (ii) transfer the ownership or control of the Survitec Topco business or the Wilhelmsen Safety business or any of their subsidiaries; or
 - (iii) otherwise impair the ability of the Wilhelmsen Safety business or the Survitec Topco business to compete independently in any of the markets affected by the transaction.
 - (b) The Wilhelmsen Safety business has been carried on separately from the Survitec Topco business and the Wilhelmsen Safety business's separate sales or brand identity has been maintained.
 - (c) The Wilhelmsen Safety business and the Survitec Topco business have been maintained as a going concern and sufficient resources have been made available for the development of the Wilhelmsen Safety business and the Survitec Topco business, on the basis of their respective pre-merger business plans.
 - (d) No substantive changes have been made to the organisational structure of, or the management responsibilities within, the Wilhelmsen Safety business or the Survitec Topco business, except in the ordinary course of business.

- (e) The nature, description, range and quality of goods and/or services supplied in the UK by the Wilhelmsen Safety business and the Survitec Topco business have been maintained and preserved.
- (f) Except in the ordinary course of business for the separate operation of the two businesses:
 - (i) all of the assets of the Wilhelmsen Safety business and the Survitec Topco business, including facilities and goodwill, have been maintained and preserved as at the start of the Relevant Period;
 - (ii) none of the assets of the Wilhelmsen Safety business or the Survitec Topco business have been disposed of; and
 - (iii) no interest in the assets of the Wilhelmsen Safety business or the Survitec Topco business has been created or disposed of.
- (g) There has been no integration of the information technology of the Wilhelmsen Safety or Survitec Topco businesses, and the software and hardware platforms of the Wilhelmsen Safety business have remained essentially unchanged, except for routine changes and maintenance.
- (h) Subject to integration which had occurred prior to the commencement date, the customer and supplier lists of the two businesses have been operated and updated separately and any negotiations with any existing or potential customers and suppliers in relation to the Wilhelmsen Safety business have been carried out by the Wilhelmsen Safety business alone and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Survitec Topco business has not negotiated on behalf of the Wilhelmsen Safety business (and vice versa) or entered into any joint agreements with the Wilhelmsen Safety business (and vice versa).
- (i) All existing contracts of the Wilhelmsen Safety business and the Survitec Topco business have been serviced by the business to which they were awarded, except to the extent novated, assigned or subcontracted prior to the commencement date.
- (j) No changes have been made to key staff of the Wilhelmsen Safety business or the Survitec Topco business.
- (k) No key staff have been transferred between the Wilhelmsen Safety business and the Survitec Topco business.

- (l) All reasonable steps have been taken to encourage all key staff to remain with the Wilhelmsen Safety business and the Survitec Topco business.
- (m) Except as permitted by the Order, no business secrets, know-how, commercially-sensitive information, intellectual property or any other information of a confidential or proprietary nature relating to either of the two businesses, has passed, directly or indirectly, from the Wilhelmsen Safety business (or any of its employees, directors, agents or affiliates) to the Survitec Topco business (or any of its employees, directors, agents or affiliates), or vice versa.
- (n) Except as listed in paragraph (o) below, there have been no:
 - (i) key staff that have left or joined the Wilhelmsen Safety business or the Survitec Topco business;
 - (ii) interruptions of the Wilhelmsen Safety business or the Survitec Topco business (including without limitation procurement, production, logistics, sales and employee relations arrangements) that have prevented it from operating in the ordinary course of business for more than 24 hours;
 - (iii) substantial customer volumes won or lost or substantial changes to the customer contracts for the Wilhelmsen Safety business or the Survitec Topco business; or
 - (iv) substantial changes in the Wilhelmsen Safety or Survitec Topco business's contractual arrangements or relationships with key suppliers.
- (o) [list of material developments]

3. Survitec Topco and its subsidiaries remain in full compliance with the Order and will, or will procure that Wilhelmsen Safety, continue actively to keep the CMA informed of any material developments relating to the Wilhelmsen Safety or the Survitec Topco business in accordance with paragraph 8 of the Order.

Interpretation

4. Terms defined in the Order have the same meaning in this compliance statement.
