

Completed acquisition by LN-Gaiety Holdings Limited of Isle of Wight Festival Limited

Consent to certain actions for the purposes of the Initial Enforcement Order made by the Competition and Markets Authority ('CMA') on 24 April 2017

We refer to your emails dated 14 June 2017 and 15 June 2017 requesting that the CMA consents to derogations to the Initial Enforcement Order of 24 April 2017 (the 'Initial Order'). The terms defined in the Initial Order have the same meaning in this letter.

Under the Initial Order, save for written consent by the CMA, Live Nation and LN-Gaiety are required to hold separate the Isle of Wight Festival business from the Live Nation and LN-Gaiety businesses and refrain from taking any action which might prejudice a reference under section 22 of the Act or impede the taking of any remedial action following such a reference. After due consideration of your request for derogations from the Initial Order, based on the information received from you and in the particular circumstances of this case, Live Nation and LN-Gaiety may carry out the following actions, in respect of the specific paragraphs:

1. Paragraphs 5(l) of the Initial Order

In order to [REDACTED], for the purpose of selling tickets for next year's Isle of Wight Festival, the CMA hereby consents to [REDACTED] ([REDACTED], Festival Republic) sharing his experience information relating to the 'early bird' sales and special offers made to festivalgoers who have been to the festival several times before (the Information) with Isle of Wight Festival Limited / Solo Agency Limited. The Information may be disclosed to the following individuals at Solo Agency Limited:

- [REDACTED];
