

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Ms D Goddard

Respondents: 1. Yorkshire Ambulance Service NHS Trust
2. Neil Beaumont

HELD AT: Leeds ON: 23 June 2017

BEFORE: Employment Judge D N Jones

REPRESENTATION:

Claimant: In person (assisted by her mother, Mrs V Goddard)
Respondents: Mr J Boyd of Counsel

JUDGMENT

1. The complaints of direct discrimination under the provisions of the Equality Act 2010 relating to the second respondent's alleged conduct between January 2015 and 20 November 2015 are out of time and it is not just and equitable to consider them. Those allegations, insofar as they constitute complaints under the Equality Act 2010, as against the first and second respondents are struck out.

2. The second respondent is removed as a party to the proceedings, as the remaining complaint of victimisation is presented against the first respondent and the complaints of constructive unfair dismissal, unauthorised deductions from wages, holiday pay and breach of contract can only be brought as against the first respondent.
