

COMPLETED ACQUISITION BY HUNTER DOUGLAS (UK) LIMITED OF BELLOTTO HOLDINGS LIMITED

Initial Enforcement Order made by the Competition and Markets Authority pursuant to section 72(2) of the Enterprise Act 2002 (the Act)

Whereas:

- (a) the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA) has reasonable grounds for suspecting that it is or may be the case that Hunter Douglas (UK) Limited and Bellotto Holdings Limited (Bellotto Holdings) have ceased to be distinct;
- (b) the CMA is considering, pursuant to section 22 of the Act, whether it is or may be the case that a relevant merger situation has been created and whether the creation of that situation has resulted or may be expected to result in a substantial lessening of competition in any market or markets in the United Kingdom (UK);
- (c) the CMA wishes to ensure that no action is taken pending final determination of any reference under section 22 of the Act which might prejudice that reference or impede the taking of any action by the CMA under Part 3 of the Act which might be justified by the CMA's decisions on the reference; and
- (d) the circumstances set out in section 72(6) of the Act do not apply and the reference has not been finally determined in accordance with section 79(1) of the Act.

Now for the purposes of preventing pre-emptive action in accordance with section 72(2) of the Act the CMA makes the following order addressed to Hunter Douglas (UK) Limited, a company registered in England and Wales with company number 00955278, and Hunter Douglas N.V., a Netherlands-based company (together Hunter Douglas) (the Order).

Commencement, application and scope

1. This Order commences on the commencement date: 17 July 2017.
2. This Order applies to Hunter Douglas.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Order, no act or omission shall constitute a breach of this Order, and nothing in this Order shall oblige Hunter Douglas to reverse any act or omission, in each case to the extent that it occurred or was completed prior to the commencement date.

Management of the Hunter Douglas and Bellotto Holdings businesses until determination of proceedings

4. Except with the prior written consent of the CMA, Hunter Douglas shall not, during the specified period, take any action which might prejudice a reference of the transaction under section 22 of the Act or impede the taking of any action under the Act by the CMA which may be justified by the CMA's decisions on such a reference, including any action which might:
  - (a) lead to the integration of the Bellotto Holdings business with the Hunter Douglas business;
  - (b) transfer the ownership or control of the Hunter Douglas business or the Bellotto Holdings business or any of their subsidiaries; or
  - (c) otherwise impair the ability of the Bellotto Holdings business or the Hunter Douglas business to compete independently in any of the markets affected by the transaction.
5. Further and without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 4 and subject to paragraph 3, Hunter Douglas shall at all times during the specified period procure that, except with the prior written consent of the CMA:
  - (a) the Bellotto Holdings business is carried on separately from the Hunter Douglas business and the Bellotto Holdings business's separate sales or brand identity is maintained;
  - (b) the Bellotto Holdings business and the Hunter Douglas business are maintained as a going concern and sufficient resources are made available for the development of the Bellotto Holdings business and the Hunter Douglas business, on the basis of their respective pre-merger business plans;
  - (c) except in the ordinary course of business, no substantive changes are made to the organisational structure of, or the management responsibilities within, the Bellotto Holdings business or the Hunter Douglas business;

- (d) the nature, description, range and quality of goods and/or services supplied in the UK by each of the two businesses are maintained and preserved;

- (f) there is no integration of the information technology of the Bellotto Holdings or Hunter Douglas businesses, and the software and hardware platforms of the Bellotto Holdings business shall remain essentially unchanged, except for routine changes and maintenance;
- (g) the customer and supplier lists of the two businesses shall be operated and updated separately and any negotiations with any existing or potential customers and suppliers in relation to the Bellotto Holdings business will be carried out by the Bellotto Holdings business alone and for the avoidance of doubt the Hunter Douglas business will not negotiate on behalf of the Bellotto Holdings business (and vice versa) or enter into any joint agreements with the Bellotto Holdings business (and vice versa);
- (h) all existing contracts of the Bellotto Holdings business and the Hunter Douglas business continue to be serviced by the business to which they were awarded;
- (i) no changes are made to key staff of the Bellotto Holdings business or Hunter Douglas business; directly or indirectly, from the Bellotto Holdings business (or any of its employees, directors, agents or affiliates) to the Hunter Douglas business (or any of its employees, directors, agents or affiliates), or vice versa, except where strictly necessary in the ordinary course of business (for example, where required for compliance with external regulatory and/or accounting obligations) and on the basis that, should the transaction be prohibited, any records or copies (electronic or otherwise) of such information that have passed, wherever they may be held, will be returned to the business to which they relate and any copies destroyed.

The CMA may give directions to a specified person or to a holder of a specified office in any body of persons (corporate or unincorporated) to take specified steps for the purpose of carrying out, or ensuring compliance with, this Order, or do or refrain from doing any specified action in order to ensure compliance with the Order. The CMA may vary or revoke any directions so given.
