1. The Tribunal issued a Default Judgment on 2 May 2017, ordering the respondents to pay £187.50 in respect of unauthorised deductions from the claimant`s wages, and £206.70 in respect of holiday pay. An application for review of that Judgment was submitted by the respondents who accepted that monies were due, but the amount of holiday pay due was said to

5 were asked to confirm in writing if they disagreed with this by 17 August 2017. There was no opposition intimated to the Tribunal in respect of the proposed course of action, and accordingly, the Tribunal was satisfied that the Judgment should be reconsidered and varied under Rule 72(2) of the Rules to the extent that the award of holiday pay is varied from £206.70, to £93.75.
