

THE EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNAL

SITTING AT: LONDON SOUTH

BETWEEN:

Ms N Morris

Claimant

and

Hempstead Care and Respite Centre Ltd

Respondent

JUDGMENT

The claim is struck out and the hearing on 20 October 2017 vacated.

REASONS

1. In this matter the claimant brought a claim of unfair dismissal and a claim for other payments.
2. The claim of unfair dismissal was struck out following the failure of the claimant to pay a deposit.
3. The claimant was ordered by the Regional Employment Judge to provide particulars to the respondent and the Tribunal on or before 23 August 2017 of the claim of breach of contract or unlawful deduction of wages, showing the amount claimed and the method of calculation.
4. On 25 August 2017 the claimant forwarded to the Tribunal an email that she had sent the same day to the respondent. That email did not provide the particulars ordered nor make any reference to her money claim(s).
5. On 31 August 2017 on the instruction of the Regional Employment Judge the claimant was asked by letter to respond to the Tribunal Order and to show cause within 7 days why the claim should not be struck out on the grounds that:

- a. It is not actively pursued.
 - b. The claimant is in breach of an Employment Tribunal Order.
 - c. The claimant has failed to provide any particulars of the remaining claims.
6. No response has been received from the claimant further to that letter.
7. Accordingly the claim is struck out on all three of those grounds.

Employment Judge K Andrews
Date: 3 October 2017