Claimant: Mrs K Holliday

Respondents: Quantuma LLP (1)
Mr A Holliday (2)

Heard at: Bristol On: 1 December 2017

Before: Employment Judge O'Rourke

JUDGMENT

The Claimant's claims of breach of contract, unlawful deduction from wages, direct and indirect discrimination on grounds of marriage and sex, protected disclosure, unfair dismissal and victimisation are dismissed against both Respondents, upon withdrawal.

REASONS

1. In view of the Claimant's email of today's date, sent at 07.25 a.m., indicating withdrawal of her claims, the telephone case management hearing scheduled for 10.00 a.m. did not proceed, save to confirm attendance, or otherwise.
2. The Claimant was invited by an emailed letter from the Tribunal, sent at 10.05 a.m., to unambiguously confirm her decision to withdraw all claims, against both Respondents.

- 3. In the absence of a response from her to that letter and her non-attendance at today's hearing, her email of 07.25 is accepted as her withdrawal of all claims, against both Respondents, under the above-stated case numbers.
