

Medical Device Alert

MDA/2018/002

Issued: 15 January 2018 at 11:00

All Philips HeartStart MRx monitors/defibrillators – significant delay in the supply of batteries

Summary

The supply of batteries for these devices has been temporarily stopped so there may be a significant delay in the fulfilment of orders for new batteries.

Action

- Identify affected devices.
- Ensure alternative devices are available as defined in local risk assessment procedures should you be unable to source a new battery.
- Follow the manufacturer's instructions for use on battery management to keep your existing batteries in the best possible condition.
- Philips have stated that they expect to resume shipments of the MRx battery by 23rd January. Please contact Philips directly for any specific update relating to any orders.

Action by

All medical, nursing and technical staff involved in the use and maintenance of these devices.
