Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email of 27 September 2013 requesting the following information:

I am happy for you to provide a list of companies and how much you have spent with them on broad PR services.

This email followed your earlier request which asked for Ministry of Defence spend (MOD) with Public Relations (PR) agencies in financial years 2010/11, 2011/12, 2012/13 and 2013/14. I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

A search for the information has now been completed within the MOD and I can confirm that all information in scope of this request is held. A list of companies with whom we have recorded expenditure on PR services is attached at Annex A. Included in the table are expenditure figures for each financial year since 2010/11.

Under Section 16 of the Act (Advice and Assistance) you may find it helpful to note that MOD PR expenditure is logged against a discrete code that covers 'the cost of public relations services including items such as sales marketing and advertising'. This code incorporates a diverse scope of activity, much of which would not normally be classed as PR. For example, while it includes expenditure on recruitment to the Armed Forces (which makes up the bulk of our PR spend), it also includes such activity as the costs of exhibitions and displays, marketing, sales promotion, business support, some welfare activities, scholarships and liaison with employers and local communities. As such, you will note that many of the companies included in the list are not PR agencies. Where we know that a transaction has been booked in error against this code, we have removed it. You may wish to note, however, that we are unable to examine each entry on the list for accuracy within the appropriate cost limit, therefore there are likely to be entries that have been mistakenly logged as 'PR Services' expenditure.

Single trader names have been redacted as they fall entirely within the scope of the absolute exemptions provided for at Section 40 of the Act (Personal Data).

If you are not satisfied with this response or wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Deputy Chief Information Officer, 2nd Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.gov.uk>.

Yours sincerely,
