

We were asked:

- Q1. The percentage of fresh and frozen meat purchased by your organisation or its sub-contractors that is of British origin?
- Q2. The percentage of meat-related products purchased by your organisation or its sub-contractors that is of British origin?
- Q3. Whether you require your suppliers to only supply the organisation with fresh or frozen meat and meat related products of British origin?
- Q4. Whether you require your suppliers to only supply the organisation with milk or milk related products of British origin?
- Q5. Whether your contracts with organisations that provide catering services or other food related services to your organisation include a clause requiring them to only use/buy British fresh/frozen or meat related products?

We replied:

The Wales Office has no in-house catering facilities and procures external catering for specific functions on an ad-hoc basis. We seek to ensure that, whenever practicable, the food procured is from British producers
