

Freedom of Information request 452/2014

Received 24 January 2014

Published

Information request

- a. How many Veterans are currently receiving the WAR DISABLEMENT PENSION? Not a standard War Pension.
- b. How much does it cost each year for an increase in the War Disablement Pension to be amended and paperwork work sent out from the DWP, to reflect the change in the level of Benefits to be received.
- c. What is the total cost of expenditure for payments to Veterans on the War Disablement Pension scheme?

DWP response

War Disablement Pension is administered by Service Personnel and Veterans Agency (SPVA), part of MoD, more information on which can be found at <https://www.gov.uk/pensions-and-compensation-for-veterans> or in writing to Service Personnel Issues: JPAC Enquiry Centre, Mail Point 465, Kentigern House, 65 Brown Street, Glasgow G2 8EX or via FoI at MOD Information Rights Team, 1st floor, Zone N, Main Building, Whitehall, London, SW1A 2HB