

Draft Message for FM to send to Armenian Remembrance Event on 22/04/13

We remember all those who suffered in the Ottoman Empire in the early 20th Century; it is important not to forget their suffering and to learn from the past. Our main concern today however is that relationships are re-built to ensure a peaceful and secure future for everyone living in the region.

Carwyn Jones AM
First Minister of Wales