Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

I refer to your recent e-mails to my colleagues in our Contact Centre in Swansea concerning a 10 ton 4 wheel plant lorry which is parked on a farm.

There is nothing I can add to what my colleagues have already said in previous correspondence. However I am attaching to the covering e-mail a document which gives more precise details of when there is a requirement to hold an Operators licence.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact us, quoting reference F0002639.

If you are unhappy with the response provided, you may ask for an internal review. To request an internal review, please write to:

VOSA Corporate Office,
Berkeley House,
Croydon Street,
Bristol,
BS5 0DA

or email vosa.corporateoffice@vosa.gsi.gov.uk

giving the reasons for your dissatisfaction. It will help us if you quote the reference number for your case.

If you do not agree with the outcome of the internal review, you may lodge an appeal with the Information Commissioner (www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk). The Information Commissioner is an independent official appointed by the Crown to

An executive agency of the Department for Transport

oversee the Data Protection Act 1998, the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

The Information Commissioner can consider complaints about any aspect of the way in which requests for information have been handled. Please note: the Information Commissioner would be unlikely to consider your complaint if you have not first requested an internal review.

You can write to the Information Commissioner at:

The Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House,
Water Lane,
