

child support agency is changing.

Over the next 3 years, the CSA will be contacting all clients about ending their current CSA child maintenance arrangement. If you have one, it'll continue as normal until you hear from us.

We'll be in touch

We'll give you plenty of notice to make your new arrangement. Help will be at hand with free support from Child Maintenance Options. If you can't make your own arrangement, a new child maintenance scheme is available, run by the Child Maintenance Service. So, when the time comes, we can help you make sure that no child of yours misses out.
