

1) The total number of approved driving instructors (ADIs) currently on the register, also the numbers showing as yet to be graded, grade four, grade five and grade six

You can find the current number of ADIs on the register, those that are graded four to six and those not yet graded in the table below. The information on the number of ADIs is correct as of 7 June 2011 and the rest of the information is correct as of 1 June 2011.

Current number of ADIs	46,985
Number of ADIs graded four	24,573
Number of ADIs graded five	15,849
Number of ADIs graded six	2,838
Number of ADIs not yet graded	3,392

Please note that:

- the remainder of current ADIs will be graded one to three
- those ADIs that are not yet graded are either awaiting a check test to be arranged, awaiting a further check test after receiving an educational grading after joining the ADI register or not due for a check test

You can find further details of check test requirements and grading at:

<http://www.businesslink.gov.uk/bdotg/action/layer?r.s=tl&r.l4=1082104385&r.l1=1081597476&r.lc=en&r.l3=1084755704&r.l2=1082103262&topicId=1082105847>

2) The current total number of trainee licence holders

There are 6,516 trainee licence holders. This information is correct as of 7 June 2011.

3) The total number of new applications for registration between 1 December 2010 and 1 June 2011

Between 1 December 2010 and 1 June 2011, there were 4,900 new registrations to become an ADI.

4) The current total number of ORDIT registered organisations and the current total number of ORDIT registered trainers

There are currently 541 ORDIT trainers at 272 organisations. This information is correct as of 7 June 2011.

5) The current total number of potential driving instructor (PDI) details held by DSA

As of 7 June 2011, we hold details of some 95,745 PDIs; most of which will no longer be pursuing a career as a driving instructor. We estimate that the number that is actively seeking qualification to be between ten and fifteen thousand at any given time.

6) The total number who have registered in the past two years (up to 1 June 2011) and have not yet qualified and then broken down into:*a) not passed part one

b) passed part one but not passed part two

c) passed part two not passed part three

Our records show details of 25,382 individuals who applied to start the qualifying process between 2 June 2009 and 1 June 2011 but have yet to qualify. Out of those 25,382 individuals:

- 17,040 have not passed the ADI part one test
- 2,938 have passed the ADI part one test but not the ADI part two test
- 5,404 have passed the ADI part two test but not the ADI part three test

7) The number of CRB checks conducted on PDIs between a) 1 January and 31 March 2011

Between 1 January and 31 March 2011, 2,961 CRB checks were conducted on PDIs.

8) The current number of ADIs by postcode

You can find the number of ADIs by postcode at Annex B. This information is correct as of 7 June 2011.

9) The current number of trainee licence holders by postcode

You can find the number of trainee licence holders by postcode at Annex C. This information is correct as of 7 June 2011.

Please note that in connection to the information provided in response to questions eight and nine:

- we know that there are some inconsistencies with the format of postcodes on our database; this affects the accuracy of the latter part of the postcode but might possibly affect some of these statistics, although this risk should be very small
- the BT postcode is in Northern Ireland as instructors who live there may apply to be on the GB ADI register if they are giving instruction in GB.
- there are some ADI/trainee licence holders abroad, these ADIs/trainee licence holders are on the GB ADI register but have an address abroad
- there are some ADI/trainee licence holders where their postcode; this is because either an ADI or trainee licence holders has not provided full address details or their address is out of date, for example an instructor has moved without informing us of their new address

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by copyright. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including for private study and non-commercial research, and for any other purpose authorised by an exception in current copyright law. Documents (except photographs) can be also used in the UK without requiring permission for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder.

Most documents supplied by the Driving Standards Agency will be protected by Crown Copyright. Most Crown copyright information can be re-used under the Open Government Licence (<http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/doc/open-government-licence/>). For information about the OGL and about re-using Crown Copyright information please see The National Archives website - <http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/information-management/uk-gov-licensing-framework.htm> .

Copyright in other documents may rest with a third party. For information about obtaining permission from a third party see the Intellectual Property Office's website at www.ipo.gov.uk.