Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Government Legal Department (“the Department”):

When we ordered the death certificate of the deceased, the date of death is slightly different to that advertised on the BV List.

Could you look in any file you have regarding this estate, and confirm the death date that you have on any death certificate or record that you have.

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division (“the Division”) under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Division holds all the information that you have requested.

The Division holds information relating to the date and place of the death of the deceased. This information can be found on the death certificate of the deceased. The event took place on 4 May 1991 in Camden, London. Certificates can be obtained from the local Registrar where the event took place or from the General Registrar Office (GRO), PO Box 2, Southport, Merseyside, PR8 2JD or by telephoning 0845 603 7788. Further details can be obtained from the GRO's website at <https://www.gov.uk/browse/births-deaths-marriages/register-offices>. The information is reasonably accessible to you by other means and is therefore exempt from disclosure under section 21 of the Act. This exemption confers absolute exemption from the requirement to provide information pursuant to section 1(1)(b) of the Act.
