Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Treasury Solicitor's Department ("the Department"):

The surname, date of death and any other information about this estate.

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division ("the Division") under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Division holds some of the information that you have requested.

The paper file was destroyed on 13 November 2006 but I confirm that the Division does hold a very limited computer record about the deceased's estate and I have checked this for information regarding the deceased's origins.

The Division records show the deceased's name as Jessie Harkney. No alternative names are known.

The Division holds information about the deceased's date of death. This information can be found on the Division's unclaimed estates list which is published on GOV.UK at <http://www.gov.uk/government/statistical-data-sets/unclaimed-estates-list> The information is reasonably accessible to you by other means and is therefore exempt from disclosure under section 21 of the Act. This exemption confers absolute exemption from the requirement to provide information pursuant to section 1(1)(b) of the Act.
