Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Treasury Solicitor's Department ("the Department"):

What happened to the letters and other documents belonging to the deceased which were sent to the Treasury Solicitor.

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division ("the Division") under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Division does not hold the information that you have requested.

The papers in this matter were put into storage after the administration was completed in 2000. We would not usually keep letters and similar documents once the administration of an estate was completed. However, in this case the original file cannot be located, so the Division does not know whether any of these documents were retained. Although a duplicate file was created this does not hold any of the documents to which you refer in your request.

I am sorry that we cannot be of any assistance in this matter.
