Dear

I wrote to you on 22 August 2014 regarding your request dated 9 August 2014, for the following information:

' Sorry to bother you again, but half way down the third page of Doc 1 it states that 'These 2 factors are shown in more detail in Annex A'. The Annex referred to is not attached to the document, please will you forward me a copy.'

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held.

The information you have requested can be found enclosed. Under Section 16 of the Act (Advice and Assistance) you may find it helpful to note that Annex A represents an incomplete piece of work towards a technical assessment of equipment failures which could lead to a hazardous situation. It must be emphasised that at the time the document was created, this work was in progress so the figures and structures used within the document should not be regarded as an accepted reflection of the failure rates or failure modes of the system.

You may wish to note that the information contained within Annex A appears incomplete and it is possible that the yellow highlights used throughout the document were to indicate areas that required review.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.gov.uk>.

Yours sincerely,

DE&S Policy Secretariat
