Dear [REDACTED]

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000. MINISTRY OF DEFENCE POLICE: DRIVING VIOLATIONS

I refer to your e-mail of 19 July 2017, which we acknowledged on the same date.

We are treating your e-mail as a request for information in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA 2000).

In your e-mail you requested the following information:

“I am writing to request data for the number of and value of tickets and fines handed out for the below motoring related offences for the latest 12 month period you hold data for:

Drink Driving violations
Drug Driving violations
Speeding violations
Parking violations
No insurance violations
Using a mobile phone while driving violations

I request this data for the most recent 12 month period available, and that the data be broken down by neighbourhoods in your force area and returned in the following format:

Drink Driving violations

- number of times committed - number of fines issued - value of fines paid

Drug Driving violations

- number of times committed - number of fines issued - value of fines paid

Speeding violations

- number of times committed - number of fines issued - value of fines paid

Parking violations

- number of times committed - number of fines issued - value of fines paid

No insurance violations

- number of times committed - number of fines issued - value of fines paid

Using a mobile phone while driving violations

- number of times committed - number of fines issued - value of fines paid

If this granular level of data is not available, please provide a top level figure of how many motoring offences were committed as a whole in the following format:

- Number of driving offences committed - number of fines issued - value of fines paid”

A search for information has now been completed and I can confirm that some information in scope of your request is held by the Ministry of Defence Police.
