Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

I refer to your e-mail of 15th September and my acknowledgement of 17th September 2010. We have dealt with your request under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You requested a) the number of Ford Focus C-Max 1.6 diesel engine, automatic transmission cars submitted for MOT tests for any given period ending in 2008, 2009 and 2010; and b) the number of these cars that have passed MOT tests in each of those periods.

Please find a spreadsheet attached to the covering e-mail which gives the requested information. This information is given by month for the whole 2008 and 2009 and for the first three months of 2010. Information later than this date is not available at the present time.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact us, quoting reference F0002884.

If you are unhappy with the response provided, you may ask for an internal review. To request an internal review, please write to:

VOSA Corporate Office,
Berkeley House,
Croydon Street,
Bristol,
BS5 0DA

or email vosa.corporateoffice@vosa.gsi.gov.uk giving the reasons for your dissatisfaction. It will help us if you quote the reference number for your case.

If you do not agree with the outcome of the internal review, you may lodge an appeal with the Information Commissioner (www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk). The Information Commissioner is an independent official appointed by the Crown to oversee the Data Protection Act 1998, the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

The Information Commissioner can consider complaints about any aspect of the way in which requests for information have been handled. Please note: the Information Commissioner would be unlikely to consider your complaint if you have not first requested an internal review.
