Dear [REDACTED]

Request for Information – Final Response

Thank you for your inquiry dated 20 October 2015 requesting the following information:

"I note that Navy lists are no longer published in hard copy. The 2013 copy is available on the web, why are the 2014 and 2015 not available to the public"

Your inquiry is being considered as a Freedom of Information request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

I can inform you that the 2014 Navy List is available for sale at The Stationery Office. It is also available on the Internet via the following link:

<http://www.royalnavy.mod.uk/~media/royal%20navy%20responsive/documents/useful%20resources/navy%20list.pdf>

The 2015 Navy List is not yet available, but It is intended to publish the 2015 list around the middle of next year.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely
