Dear Redacted

RE: Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your email of 25 March in which you asked for the following:

“Please disclose all correspondence between the Secretary of State for Energy and Climate Change, and representatives of Centrica/British Gas.

Please include emails, and minutes of any available meetings or phone calls.

Feel free to redact these communications for commercially confidential information.”

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act'), you have the right to:

- know whether we hold the information you require
- be provided with that information (subject to any exemptions under the Act which may apply).

The Department wishes to be as open as possible in answering requests, and to help people obtain the information they are looking for. Unfortunately, we cannot provide the information you have requested as your request is too wide and the effort to administer your request would exceed the limit prescribed in Regulations made pursuant to Section 12 of the Act. This limit is £600 which represents the estimated cost of one person spending 3.5 working days in determining whether the Department holds the information, locating, retrieving and extracting the information. The Act provides that we are not obliged to comply with requests where the estimated cost of complying would exceed this limit.

Department of Energy & Climate Change

In order to provide you with the information on the scale that you have requested would require a search of all the records, computer drives and email accounts of the Secretary of State's office and staff for an undefined period of time. We estimate that the amount of work required would take us over the limit referred to above.

The best way that we can help you is therefore to ask you to consider whether you could narrow down your request to focus on the precise information that you are seeking. You may wish to refine your request by narrowing its scope by being more specific about what information you particularly wish to obtain. For example you could state the specific subject you wish to know about and provide a period of time.

You may wish to be aware that brief details of the Secretary of State's meetings with external organisations are published on a quarterly basis on the www.gov.uk website at the following link:

Appeals procedure

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to the Information Rights Unit (foi@decc.gsi.gov.uk).
