Dear Redacted

Re: Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your email of 8 April in which you asked for the following:

"I would like to make a Freedom of Information request regarding communications between Minister of State for Energy and Climate Change Michael Fallon and the Met Office.

Specifically, I am interested in any briefings that have taken place in person between Michael Fallon and the Met Office on the subject of climate change since 28th March 2013.

I would also like to see any notes that were attached to these exchanges, either to set up the meeting or conversation or to discuss the matters arising (including any minutes that were taken).

In the case of emails and letters, I would like to see the text of the messages."

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act'), you have the right to:

- know whether we hold the information you require
- be provided with that information (subject to any exemptions under the Act which may apply).

I have carried out a search of our electronic and paper records and I have established that the Department does not hold any information within scope of your request.

Appeals procedure

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within
