Confidentiality and data protection

Consultation responses will be published on a publicly accessible website. Individuals' names, addresses or signatures will not be published. However, please do not include information in your response that could identify you, unless you are happy for it to be made public.

If you do not want any of your response to be published, please tick the box below. However, please note that all information provided in response to this consultation, including personal information, may be subject to disclosure in accordance with access to information regimes - these are, primarily, the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), the Data Protection Act 1998 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

Under the FOIA, there is a statutory Code of Practice with which public authorities must comply and which deals with our confidentiality obligations, amongst other things. In view of this, it would be helpful if you could explain below why you regard the information you have provided as confidential. If we receive a request for disclosure of the information you provide, we will take full account of your explanation, but we cannot give an assurance that confidentiality can be maintained in all circumstances. An automatic confidentiality disclaimer generated by your IT system will not, of itself, be regarded as binding on the Department for Transport or HS2 Ltd.

Please note that all responses received, whether marked 'Confidential' or not, will be passed on in full to the Houses of Parliament and their appointed Assessor, who will analyse the responses and make a report to Parliament. That report will not contain your personal data. Responses will also be sent to HS2 Ltd during the process of making them available for public viewing.

I wish my response to be treated as confidential (please write your reasons below)

Documents

The SES4 and AP5 ES are composed of a number of documents: all of them are publicly available.

Non-technical summary – This is a summary of the changes and any likely significant residual effects on the environment. You may find this a useful place to start.

Volume 1: Introduction and methodology – This introduces the supplementary environmental information and design changes in the SES4 and the amendments that have resulted in the need to amend the Bill in the AP5 ES. It also explains any changes to the basis of the environmental impact assessment - its scope, method, assumptions and limitations.

Volume 2: Community forum area (CFA) report and map book – Each of these reports focuses on a particular area along the route. Volume 2 describes the supplementary environmental information and design changes included within the SES4 (Part 1) and amendments within the AP5 ES (Part 2). Volume 2 reports any significant environmental effects that are likely to arise, if the effects are new or different from those reported in the main ESs. It also sets out the measures that are being proposed to avoid, reduce or manage the effects. Each CFA report is supported by a map book showing 'before' and 'after' details of the proposed changes and amendments.

Volume 3: Route-wide effects – This volume reports any likely significant route-wide effects, where these are new or different from those previously reported.

Volume 5: Technical appendices and map books – This volume comprises technical appendices which contain supporting environmental surveys, information and maps.

Please note: there is no Volume 4 for the SES4 and AP5 ES as none of the SES4 design changes or AP5 amendments relate to or generate likely significant environmental effects in off-route areas (i.e. outside the CFAs).

Please let us know your comments in relation to the Non-Technical Summary and four volumes.
