Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email of 27 October in which you asked for the following information:

"My FOI request is to be supplied with the serving British Army officer lists for 2014 and 2015 in the same format as the British Army officer list for 2013 (published 1st August 2014) at the following URL:

https://www.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/340311/20140730_Army_List.csv/preview"

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I can confirm that the Ministry of Defence holds this information, and I have attached the Army List for 2014, which was released as a result of a previous Freedom of Information Act request before the Ministry of Defence began proactively publishing its answers on the Gov.uk website. The Army List for 2015 is exempt under Section 21 of the Act; it is reasonably accessible to you through other means. This is because it has already been published by the Department on the Gov.uk website. The information can be found at:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/foi-responses-published-by-mod-week-commencing-10-august-2015>

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <https://ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely,
