

Fast track apprentices' salaries

“1) What is the highest and lowest salary paid to a Fast Track apprentice, across all intake schemes within the department?”

2) What is the average salary paid to a Fast Track apprentice across all intake schemes within the department?”

DFID has one flat rate salary for Fast Track apprentices, which is £24,411 per annum.

“3) Do Fast Stream apprentices receive London Weighting allowance on top of the above mentioned salaries? If yes, please provide the amount provided.”

DFID does not currently have any Fast Track apprentices in London. However, you may wish to note that DFID has consolidated London Weighting allowance into basic pay and it is therefore not paid as a separate allowance.

“4) What is the highest and lowest salary paid to anyone on the Fast Stream who is paid directly by the department?”

DFID's pay range for departmental Fast Stream is £26,800 to £37,195.
