Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 - REQUEST REF: FOI 0302-16

I am writing in response to your email of 15 March 2016 asking for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000. You specifically asked:

Under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act, please could you provide me with the information for Transparency data publications of Wilton Park. I want the publications from Oct 2013.

I have referred to Wilton Park website and found the data till Sep 2013 followed by Apr – Jun 2014 to Apr – Jun 2015 publications. But, in this publications there are no headers (Department, Entity, Amount, Transaction Number, etc ) in the excel sheet for columns and I am not sure what those columns refers to. Please send me the publications from Oct 2013.

I am writing to confirm that we have now completed the search for the information which you requested and I can confirm that Wilton Park does hold information relevant to your request. However, under section 21 of the Act, we are not required to provide information in response to a request if it is already reasonably accessible to you. The information relevant to your request can now be found on the Wilton Park website.

Once an FOI request is answered, it is considered to be in the public domain. To promote transparency, we may now publish the response and any material released on gov.uk in the FOI releases section. All personal information in the letter will be removed before publishing.

The copies of information being supplied to you continue to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by the FCO will have been produced by government officials and will be protected by Crown Copyright. To re-use Crown Copyright documents please consult the Open Government Licence v3 on the National Archives website.

Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non-Crown Copyright) information.

Yours sincerely

Senior Information Risk Officer
