REQUEST FOR INFORMATION: Imports of Farmed Salmon from Norway to UK since 2000

Thank you for your request for information on imports of farmed salmon from Norway to the UK since 2000, which we have received on 12 January, 2014. We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

I am writing to advise you that the information that you have requested for is not held by Defra.

I can confirm that the information is held by HMRC, which can be contacted at HMRC Freedom of Information Team Room 1C/23 100 Parliament Street, London SW1A 2BQ or you could contact them by Fax: 03000 586902. I understand that you could also get this information from the HMRC website at, www.uktradeinfo.com/statistic, but to do this you will need the product code. To get the product code you will need to call the Classification Department (HMRC) by calling them on 01702 366 077.

I attach an annex giving contact details should you be unhappy with the service that you have received.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Annex

Complaints

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request you may make a complaint or appeal against our decision under section 17(7) of the FOIA or under regulation 18 of the EIRs, as applicable, within 40 working days of the date of this letter. Please write to Mike Kaye, Head of Information Standards, Area 4D, Nobel House, 17 Smith Square, London, SW1P 3JR (email: requestforinfo@defra.gsi.gov.uk) and he will arrange for an internal review of your case. Details of Defra's complaints procedure are on our website.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, section 50 of the FOIA and regulation 18 of the EIRs gives you the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Please note that generally the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have first exhausted Defra's own complaints procedure. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
