

Household and personal goods donated to charity

Schedule IHT408

When to use this form

Fill in this form if the people who have inherited the deceased's household and personal goods:

- wish to donate some or all of them to a qualifying charity
- wish to deduct charity exemption against the value of the estate

If you fill in this form you will not have to submit a formal Instrument of Variation (IOV) to deduct charity exemption for any household and personal goods given to charity by the beneficiaries.

You should not fill in this form to deduct charity exemption for any household and personal goods that pass to charity under the deceased's will.

Additional requirements

If the deceased died on or after 6 April 2012, you must send proof with this form that the charity has received the goods being passed to it.

All the people who have inherited the household and personal goods must sign this form.

Qualifying charities

A qualifying charity is one that:

- is established in the European Union or other specified country
- · meets the English law definition of a charity
- has managers who are fit and proper persons to be managers of the charity
- is regulated in the country of establishment, if that is a requirement in that country
