Hi [REDACTED],

I can't seem to reach you on the phone today – my apologies for that. As you know, we had our round table with the SR today, which from what I hear went well. Whilst she was here, she asked about some elements of the programme:

1. Would it be possible to visit Yarlwood detention centre rather than Colnbrook?
2. Can she meet DfE earlier in the programme?
3. Can we set up a visit to RMP Holloway?
4. She also mentioned that she didn't have a call with the CPS.
5. She wasn't sure where things stood with Northern Ireland

I'd be really grateful if you could follow up with [REDACTED] and the relevant departments re her requests. I think they are still looking to be reassured that the remaining elements of the programme are going to come online. Do you have colleagues in your team who can help you bring the last elements of the programme together? Give me a call if you'd like to discuss.

I hope all is going well from your side so far.

Best wishes,

Rob,

Apologies my phone died. Now back on line. I'm still trying to contact the Special Rapporteur's assistant, [REDACTED], who is in the UK with her. We may have a bit more time as [REDACTED]'s left me a message saying that the SR would like to visit a detention centre on Monday afternoon (ie not tomorrow morning, as OHCHR originally advised). The message was a bit garbled, but she mentioned Yarlsbrooke (or Yarlswood) detention centre.
