

ASC Recruitment Campaign

Members for the Animals in Science Committee

The Animals in Science Committee (ASC) is a non-departmental public body sponsored by the Home Office to provide independent advice to the Government on the use of animals in scientific procedures, advise the Animal Welfare Ethical Review Bodies on good practice and exchange information with other national bodies within the European Union.

The Home Office is seeking members with expertise in the following areas:

- An individual with current or recent senior leadership experience in commercial/industrial biotechnology – Ref HOSRS2
- A veterinarian – Ref HOSRS3

The time commitment may be up to 15 days per year.

Closing date for receipt of applications is Friday 1 November 2013, with interviews for shortlisted candidates to be held on 2 December 2013

If you think you have the qualities required and wish to have an applications pack for any of the appointments, please download from the following website:

ASC - <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/animals-in-science-committee>

Enquiries about these appointments should be made to HOSRSRecruitment@homeoffice.gsi.gov.uk or on: 020 7035 4776 (ASC)

All the appointments will be for an initial period of up to three years. The appointments are unremunerated; however there will be reimbursement for travel and subsistence incurred in carrying out their roles.

Applications from Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland would be welcome. The Home Office will not discriminate on grounds of age, disability, gender, gender identity, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sexual orientation, those with caring responsibilities, or any other factor irrelevant to the post. This post is regulated by the Commissioner for Public Appointments.
