Amendment of 1974 Order

3. For article 4(2) of the 1974 Order there is substituted –

“(2) A member appointed by the Secretary of State under article 3(1)(a) shall, unless appointed to fill a casual vacancy and subject to the provisions of Schedule 1 to the 1967 Scheme, hold office for a period of 3 years following his appointment or for such lesser period as the Secretary of State may specify.

(3) A casual vacancy arising in the office of chairman or other member appointed by the Secretary of State under article 3(1)(a) shall, unless it is not reasonably practicable to do so, be filled by the appointment of a chairman or, as the case may be, other member by the Secretary of State.

(4) The Secretary of State may fill a casual vacancy in the office of chairman by appointing as the chairman a person who is already a member appointed under article 3(1)(a) and, if the Secretary of State does so, the appointment shall be deemed to create a casual vacancy in the office of the member who is appointed as the chairman.

(5) A member appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall, subject to the provisions of Schedule 1 to the 1967 Scheme, hold office during the remainder of the term for which the member whom he replaces was appointed or such other period (not exceeding 3 years) as the Secretary of State may specify.”

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order revokes the requirement for a member of the Port of Tyne Authority (“the Authority”) to vacate his or her office on the 30th June following his or her seventieth birthday. It also revokes the restriction on a person who has attained the age of 64 from being appointed a member of the Authority for the first time.

It also provides that a person appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the term for which the member replaced was appointed or for such period not exceeding 3 years as the Secretary of State may specify.

A full assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no impact on business or the private or voluntary sector is foreseen.
