Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email dated 4 June 2014, requesting the following information:

"I have seen that the www.gov.uk site has some useful information however I am unable to download it to make notes and refer to in hard copy. I was wondering if you had access to downloadable content in this subject area that could be e-mailed over or any information that might be useful to myself

I am looking for information regarding Military Housing in the UK; figures on leaving personnel, current employees who have/have not got houses, help to buy schemes in place and anything else relevant to this field."

This has been considered as a request for information in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOI Act).

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence (MOD), and we can confirm that information in scope of your request is held.

Information on Military Housing in the UK is published on the Parliament website and can be found through the following link:

<http://www.publications.parliament.uk/pa/cm201213/cmselect/cmdfence/331/33102.htm>

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.gov.uk>.

Yours sincerely,

Defence Personnel Secretariat
