

Dear Consultee

Artificial light statutory nuisance – continued utility of the current exemptions for certain premises

I am writing to invite views on the continued utility of exempting certain premises from the artificial light statutory nuisance provisions under Part III, Environment Protection Act 1990 (EPA) in England.

A copy of this letter and a paper setting out the issues can be found at:

www.defra.gov.uk/consult/2011/12/13/artificial-light-1112/

We welcome your views and comments on this matter. If you wish to obtain a copy of any of the documents please contact:

Responses should be received by 14:00 on Friday 17 February 2012.

Confidentiality Statement

When this response period ends, we intend to put a copy of the responses in the Defra library at Ergon House, London. This is so that the public can see them. Also, members of the public may ask for a copy of responses under freedom of information legislation.

If you do not want your response - including your name, contact details and any other personal information – to be publicly available, please say so clearly in writing when you send your response to the paper. Please note, if your computer automatically includes a confidentiality disclaimer, that won't count as a confidentiality request.

Please explain why you need to keep details confidential. We will take your reasons into account if someone asks for this information under freedom of information legislation. But, because of the law, we cannot promise that we will always be able to keep those details confidential.

Summary document

We will summarise all responses and place this summary on our website at www.defra.gov.uk/consult/. This summary will include a list of names of organisations that responded but not people's personal names, addresses or other contact details.

To see the responses and summaries, please contact the library at:

Defra
Information Resource Centre
